CONSTABULARY RULE

Established in Kentucky's Capital Today.

Quiet Reigns During the Early Hours, But the Silence is Considered Ominous.

FRANKFORT, Ky., March 12.—The capital is under constabulary rule this morning. Mayor Julian ordered about twenty extra policemen to remain on duty in the rotunda of the capitol. They are under command of Chief Tobin, with instructions to keep the rotunda absolutely clear. This course was decided on by the mayor, after a consultation with the governor, who said to the mayor that if Frankfort was unable to afford police protection to members of the legislature he intended to do so if it took every state guard in Kentucky. At this hour, 10:30 o'clock, everything is quiet and there are no indications of a clash.

Shortly after the house opened Representative Kauffman walked down the aisle and began to gather up his papers about his desk. Mr. Dunlap was not present when work was begun. Senators James and Walton were in the house chamber ready to be on hand when the joint session begins. Representative Spsed, republican, sent up a resolution providing that,

WHEREAS, The authorities of Frankfort and Franklin county have failed to suppress lawlessness and mob violence has been attempted to obstruct legislation. Therefore, be it

Resolved, That it is the sense of this body that the capitol should be moved to a place where order and protection will be guaranteed.

The speaker ruled the resolution out of order.

As soon as the democratic leaders found that the two members of the senate, James and Walton had secured admission to the house chamber, they raised a protest. Mayor Julian, who was on hand with extra policemen, was found and asked to see that the men were removed peaceably from the floor of the house before the joint assembly convened, in order that all trouble might be prevented. The mayor refused to do so, and said that it was within the power of the house, if it chose to do so, to eject the two men. Senator Bronston argued for some time with the mayor, but without effect. The situation is very critical, because the democrats declare that if an attempt is made by the two ex members to vote, it will surely precipitate trouble.

The republican leaders assert that both James and Walton have a right to the floor of the house, and some of the republicans were not slow to say that they will vote in joint assembly for United States senator. Adjutant General Collier said just now that the only difference between the unseating of Kauffman in the house and the declaring vacant of the seats of James and Walton in the senate was that Kauffman was legally unseated while James and Walton were not. It is expected that the adjutant general will take a hand in the case if trouble breaks out. The corridors are filled with an even more desperate set of men today than was present yesterday and if trouble does break out the consequences can not but be terrible. The men in the corridors are now guarding the door of the house chamber, however, while those outside gaze with longing eyes at the glass doors. Walton and James are sitting side by side in the left hand corner of the chamber, where it will be exceedingly hard to get at them in case of an attempt at expulsion.

The special police just before noon ordered all persons in the upper corridors to go below, and a dense mass of men are now gathered in the lower corridors of the capital. A few are still left in the cloak rooms of the house and senate, and these are now being slowly forced out and down the stair way. Among those in the senate cloak room are Chinn, Lillard, Williams, Thompson, Roach, Blackburn, and a number of special policemen. No attempt has been made to clear the senate lobby of the crowd now in it.

When the senate filed into the house chamber to ballot for United States senator, Mr Dunlap had not arrived upon the floor or qualified. When this fact became known it served to cool to a great degree the excitement. It was evident that the endeavor of the republicans to elect a senator today would fail unless, of course, the vote of Populist Poor had been secured.

Half a dozen ladies were in the right hand lobby of the house chamber, in spite of the exciting times of yesterday. They included Miss Laura Clay, Mrs. J. K. Henry and mother, of Versailles.

Senator Bronston asked that the journal of each house of yesterday be read. An objection was made to the reading and the chair sustained the objection, and said that he had understood that only the journal of the joint assembly was to be read. Bronston made the point that the journal of the joint assembly must include the journals of each house. He again made the same argument as on yesterday that there was no separate journal kept of the joint assembly and that it was, therefore, necessary to have separate journals of each house read in accordance to the law and not that he wished to delay the taking of the ballot.

Mr. Landes said that the joint assembly had no jurisdiction to change or correct anything that occurred in either house on yesterday and that Bronston had no right to make a request to have anything read save the journal of the joint assembly. He asked the chair to declare the gentleman out of order. Mr. Blanford said that the joint assembly had no right to approve or correct any part of the journal of the house or senate of yesterday and therefore neither should be read. Bronston said: "The time has come when we must understand each other. The journals of the house and senate of yesterday are but a part of the journal of the joint assembly."

The chair decided that the joint assembly was a separate assembly, distinct from each house, and that the members were only entitled to have read proceedings of the joint assembly.

After more wrangling, Sailyer, democrat, moved that the reading of the Journal of the joint assembly be dispensed with. Agreed to.

Before the call of the roll on the ballot was begun Senator Bronston stated that he understood that there was stationed in the corridor a platoon of police, he supposed for the purpose of preserving peace and good order. He continued, "I ask why certain persons now on the floor of this house are here. I ask that first as a request and second as a motion that every one be excluded from the floor of this house save members of the joint assembly, officers, and the press."

Mr. Barnett made the point that the motion was out of order. The chair said he thought the motion was out of order, but he would put it to the assembly anyway. The republicans refused to vote with the intention of breaking a quorum. Edrington voted with the democrats for the motion, as did Poor also. The chair announced that no quorum had voted, and the motion was lost.

The presiding officer announced that he was still of the opinion that seventy members constituted a quorum and would so rule, and that in all ballots for senator seventy members must be voting to insure election.

The chair ordered the call of the roll, which showed 130 members present. There were only two pairs. The ballot resulted:

Blackburn, 51..
Carlisle, 12.
Buckner, 1.

The republicans and Populist Poor refused to vote and the chair declared that no election had been had. Upon motion the assembly adjourned until tomorrow.

The democrats are much pleased with the ruling of Lieutenant Governor Worthington in today's joint assembly, and say if seventy votes are required for a quorum, as stated by him, that there will be no election this session. Republican leaders still declare that a majority of those present is a quorum. Both sides seem delighted that there was no trouble of any kind.

STILL ARGUING.

Reported Settlement of the Boundary Dispute Premature.

A Peaceful Ending of the Dispute is Anticipated, Though it May Come Months Later.

WASHINGTON, March 12.—It can be stated positively, notwithstanding publications to the contrary, that no settlement has yet been reached of the Venezuelan boundary question, but according to the best authority matters are proceeding in such fashion as to warrant the belief that there will be a satisfactory outcome. It is admitted that at present it cannot be told whether the ultimate settlement of this question will be affected as the result of direct negotiations between Great Britain and Venezuela, initiated through the medium of some mutually friendly power, or as the conclusion of the work of our own Venezuelan boundary commission, but in one way or another a peaceful and honorable settlement of the dispute is believed to be firmly probable in the end, though this end still may be far removed in point of time. If negotiations directly between Venezuela and Great Britain have been resumed at Caracas, the fact is not known to the officials here, who should be advised for their own guidance, and as the Venezuelan commission is proceeding diligently to the discharge of its duties of weighing all of the evidence obtainable respecting the actual location of the boundary line, and in this has been assured of the co-operation of both the parties to the dispute, the public expectation appears to turn in that direction. Owing to the limited number of advance copies of the British blue book containing the British case which have been received so far, the commission has been obliged to struggle along with one single copy, which is of course inadequate for the simultaneous study of all the members, but it is expected that within a day or two the mails will bring a sufficient supply of the documents from London to facilitate the progress of the work. Meanwhile, so far as the document has been examined, it can be stated that it is not regarded as bearing out the promise of invulnerability claimed for it in London. In fact it is in many points regarded as open to impeachment as to actual historical events recited.

Farmers Get Cheap Whiskey.

GREENSBURG, Ind., March 12.—Agents have been peddling whiskey over this county for the past two days. They traveled on horseback and carried from two to four one-gallon jugs in a sack, which was slung across the horse's back. Several farmers in different parts bought the liquor, paying from fifty to seventy-five cents per gallon. It is not known how or where the agents got their supply. They did not tarry long and are now working Rush county.

SETTLEMENT REACHED.

Satisfactory Conclusion of the Venezuelan Question.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 12.—A settlement of the Venezuelan question has been reached. It will be announced at an early day. Of this satisfactory conclusion of the controversy the president has had knowledge for two days past. Great Britain has acted with a magnanimity which commands her to the severest critics. She concedes so much that there will be little left to arbitrate should arbitration be necessary. It is not improbable that the entire matter may now be settled outside the Venezuelan commission by the president and Lord Salisbury. Under the terms, so far as outlined, Great Britain agrees to submit all of the questions in dispute to amicable adjustment, with the president, through the state department, as one of the contracting parties. That Venezuela would agree to almost anything suggested by the United States has been known all along. It is surmised that the attitude of some of the influential London papers in pointing out alleged defects in the British blue book may have had something to do with the change of attitude by Queen Victoria's ministers. The president was in very high spirits last night over the favorable turn in the controversy between the two nations.

LONDON, March 12.—The permanent under secretary of state for foreign affairs, Sir Thomas Henry Sanderson, was asked today if the report, cabled here from the United States, that a settlement of the Venezuelan question has been reached, was correct. He said that he would be glad to know that the Venezuelan dispute was settled. "But," he added, "I know nothing about such a settlement as the one reported in New York having been reached. For all I know, however, a settlement may be near; but I have not heard of its attainment."

Italians Fleeing From Italy to Escape Military Service--China Secures a Loan.

ROME, March 12.—The latest advices from Massowah are that the army of the Negus has reached Entisico, half way between Adowa and Adigrat. The forces of Osman Digna have arrived at Gulusit.

PARIS, March 12.—The railroad trains crossing the frontier from Italy are crowded with Italians who are leaving that country to escape military service in Africa.

The Eclair today, commenting on the Cuban resolutions of congress, says that in view of the "exaggerated pretentions," of the United States, it is "difficult to see why European diplomats cannot, at least, extend their good offices to Spain."

PEKIN, March 12.—The Anglo-German loan of 100,000 000 taels has been issued at 94, with interest at 5 per cent. The contract stipulates that the customs administration is to remain unchanged.

CONSTANTINOPLE, March 12.—Two of the assistants of Miss Clara Barton, president of the American Red Cross society, have received permits to proceed to Alexandria. Miss Barton will remain here for the present.

STRANGE PHENOMENON

Noticed in Various Parts of Nebraska.

OMAHA, Neb., March 12.—A strange phenomenon has been noticed in various parts of Nebraska. Water stands higher in wells and is found in larger volume in streams than for several years at this season. There has been very little rain in Nebraska during the past fall and winter, yet streams which were dry last year are filling with water from unknown sources and wells show more water than usual. The weather bureau has begun an investigation and the railroads are assisting.

DUESTROW SENTENCED.

Will be Hanged for the Murder of His Wife and Baby.

UNION, Mo., March 12.—Dr. Arthur Duestrow, the so-called millionaire murderer of St. Louis, who was convicted in the circuit court here a short time ago of killing his wife and baby in St Louis, was brought before Judge Hirael today and sentenced to be hanged April 22. Duestrow will be sent back to the St. Louis jail for safe keeping.

Raines Excise Bill.

ALBANY, N. Y., March 12.—Voting on the Raines excise bill, which passed the senate on Tuesday, will begin in the assembly at 4 o'clock this afternoon. First will come eight amendments which have been proposed, and then there will be a motion to strike out the enacting clause, so that the final vote can scarcely be reached before 6 o'clock. Some opponents of the measure profess a belief that the bill will fail of passage in the assembly.

Voted Against Woman.

LONDON, March 12.—The senate of Cambridge university, by a vote of 184 to 171, has rejected the proposition to appoint a committee to consider the question of conferring degrees upon women.

Firm Reorganized.

NEW YORK, March 12.—The old carriage firm of J. W. Brewster & Co., which failed last October, has been reorganized under the title of J. W. Brewster & Co., reorganized. James B. Brewster is the president of the new corporation, which starts with a capital of $50 000.

AFFAIRS OF STATE.

Cuban Resolutions Come in for a Share of Attention.

Senator Hill Expresses His Views on the Question--Proceedings of Both Houses.

WASHINGTON, March 12.—There is no abatement of public interest in the Cuban debate in the senate, as is evidenced by the large crowds which continue to fill the galleries to their full capacity. A number of the ladies of the diplomatic corps, who were in the diplomatic gallery, and some of them occupied front seats, were supplied with opera glasses, with which they surveyed the senators. Mr. Sherman gave notice that he would endeavor to secure a vote on the Cuban report at the earliest possible moment. After an hour was consumed in clearing away routine matters the Cuban resolutions were laid before the senate and Mr. Hill, of New York, was recognized. He was given marked attention and in opening said he would vote against the conference report and would confine his remarks mainly to an explanation of his reasons therefor.

He pointed out that this being a conference report, the resolution could not be amended. He would, therefore, vote against the report in order that at a subsequent time amendments might be made. The senator particularly objected to the third clause of the resolutions, stating that "the United States has not intervened in the struggles between any European governments and their colonies, but that owing to the proximity of Cuba, the United States should be prepared to intervene." This he declared to be ambiguous and unmeaning. We had intervened in such controversies. We had intervened and recognized the countries which had been colonies of Spain. What the resolution sought to convey was a threat to intervene. To this extent the resolution was unnecessary. It is subject to doubtful construction and a mischief breeder. It was liable to compromise us. The phrase that the "United States should be prepared to protect the legitimate interests of our citizens by intervention," sounded like a threat, or it was buncom. "If this resolution means that we should increase our army let us say so frankly and frame a bill for that purpose," said Mr. Hill. "If it means we should increase our navy let us state it frankly and fearlessly and frame a bill to that end. Let us not indulge in idle boasts and threats and doubtful phrases as to our being prepared to protect legitimate interests by intervention."

At 2 o'clock there was a contest for precedence between the Cuban resolutions and the Dupont election case, which was finally settled by laying aside the Dupont case while Senator Sherman addressed the senate in support of the Cuban resolutions.

Mr. Sherman discussed at length the character of the resolutions and the conditions existing in Cuba. It was not best to send joint resolutions to the president, as it would compel his action in ten days, and this was not judicious. He had confidence in the president. There were political differences between them but, he added, "no one doubts his courage; no one doubts his fidelity to the flag of our country." Mr. Sherman referred to General Weyler as a butcher and said the conditions in Cuba were flagrant. "If war does not exist in Cuba," he asked, "where outside of hell does it exist." Speaking of the demand for facts, he said that Senator Lodge had obtained from Secretary Olney ample facts to justify the resolutions, but for obvious reasons they could not be made public.

The senate has passed the bill authorizing the Hammond and Blue Island Railroad company to construct a bridge across the Calumet river, in Illinois.

The house committee on territories today decided to recommend the passage of a bill creating a territorial form of government for Alaska, and giving the territory a delegate in congress.

Today's statement of the condition of the treasury shows: Available cash balance, $263 641,681; gold reserve, $126 716,901

DECISION AFFIRMED.

The Press Publishing Company Stuck in the Sum of $5,000.

NEW YORK March 12.—Judge Lacombe, in the United States circuit court of appeals, has affirmed the judgment of the circuit court for the eastern district of New York, awarding Miss Harriet Monroe, of Chicago, $5,000 damages against the Press Publishing company, of this city. The suit was the outgrowth of the premature publication in the New York World, of the ode which Miss Monroe had written for the dedication ceremonies of the World's Columbian exposition in 1893. It was alleged by the complainant in this action that certain errors which appeared in the unauthorized publication of her ode were damaging to her reputation as a writer. Miss Monroe obtained a verdict in the circuit court in December, 1894

Dr. Enslen was also called upon to attend the ten-year old daughter of Mrs. Fredericka Bierbaum, of No. 53 Taylor street. The little girl fell on the sidewalk on the way home from school and broke both bones of the right leg.

AFFAIRS IN CUBA

As Depicted by Colonel Perese, the Insurgent.

Spanish Soldiers Take No Interest in the Government's Cause and Many Desert and Go to the Enemy.

NEW YORK March 12.—Col. Frederick O Perese, chief of staff of General Maceo, of Cuba, is in this city on a secret mission. He will return to Cuba in a few days. In an interview last night he said: "When I left Cuba, General Gomez and General Maceo were very well satisfied at the conditions existing, and hoped to be able to do something more decisive in the near future. The raid through the central provinces has brought good results. The Cubans gained arms, ammunition and men. Many Spanish volunteers have taken the field with them. In the eastern part of the island over 1,000 Spanish regulars have deserted to the Cubans. Since I left the army there has been a reorganization and some changes. Maceo and Gomez were about to unite their forces again. They now have an army of about 25 000 men in the central provinces. The Cubans have throughout the island about 60.000 armed men, and about 40,000 partially armed. Of the armed men about one-third are cavalrymen, who have plenty of good horses. The Spanish mounted infantrymen are no match for them. Many of the Spaniards are not able to ride, and when they charge they cling with both hands to the pommels of their saddles and do not control their horses. Since General Weyler took control the Spaniards have done nothing. They have a great many flying columns in the field but they are always with the rear guard, following along, and never by any chance coming in contact with the vanguard. That is the reason that General Maceo was able to pass from the province of Pinar del Rio to the province of Havana without firing a shot. The Spanish army was marched in the region. I was in the ten years war, and saw the Spaniards fight like demons. Now there is a change. They seem to have no heart for their work. They fight weakly and do not seem to care how the battle may go. The Spaniards appear to be very much demoralized both on account of the movements of Cubans and the action of the American congress. The resolutions passed by the house and senate have given much joy to the Cuban leaders. I had no trouble in getting away from Cuba. In fact there were many facilities. I left the island at a point not far from Havana. The whole interior of the island and the coast with the exception of the few harbors held by the Spaniards are practically under the control of the insurgents. Colonel Perese was wounded January 18 in the battle of Garro, where the Spaniards ambushed the troops of General Maceo and killed four men. Colonel Perese was shot in the neck, and was in the hospital for several weeks. He left the island about a week ago.

SNOW STORMS.

The "Beautiful" Fell to a Depth of Twenty Inches.

NEW YORK, March 12.—Snow fell all night in the interior of the state. Dispatches received today by the Associated Press report from eighteen to twenty inches of snow at Saratoga, Amsterdam, Monticello and other points, and considerable interruption to railway traffic in consequence. In this city the storm subsided before midnight, and today the weather is clear but cold.

PITTSBURG, March 12.—The worst snow storm that has been experienced in western Pennsylvania for years, swept over Pittsburg yesterday and last night. More snow fell during the twenty-four hours ending this morning than all the days of the winter. The temperature dropped twenty degrees, and another fall of ten to fifteen degrees is expected today. Despite the heavy snow, trains on all lines were generally on time. On the Baltimore and Ohio road, a freight wreck near here last night, tied up the line for nearly eight hours. No one was injured.

TWO FIRES.

Tobacco Warehouse in Pennsylvania--Oil Mill in Mississippi.

LANCASTER, Pa., March 12.—The tobacco warehouse occupied by C. Walt Kendig was entirely destroyed by fire this morning together with between 700 and 800 cases of tobacco. There is an insurance of $35 000 on the tobacco which will fully cover the loss. The building was owned by Mrs. J. Gust Zook whose loss is about $3,000. The fire is supposed to have been of incendiary origin.

VICKSBURG, Miss., March 12.—The Clarksdale oil mill was burned yesterday morning with an immense quantity of seed. The loss will approximate $100,000 and is only partially insured.

GOES GUNNING.

The President Leaves Washington for a Day's Hunt.

WASHINGTON, March 12.—President Cleveland left the city last night at 10:30 on the lighthouse tender Maple for a day's shooting at Widewater, five miles below Quantico, on the Potomac river. He expects to return tonight at 10 o'clock.

QUANTICO, Va., March 12.—The lighthouse tender Maple, with President Cleveland aboard, passed here this morning between 2:30 and 3 o'clock. The vessel steamed down in front of the small station on Widewater and dropped anchor. The president is accompanied by Colonel Rives and Commodore Lamberton. Colonel Waller joined them soon after they anchored and the party started for the colonel's blind at daylight. The snow storm has given place to bright, crisp weather and the prospects are very good for ducking.

LOYAL DEMOCRATS.

They Had a Large Meeting Last Night.

Prominent Speakers Delivered Addresses, Urging Harmony and Hard Work During the Campaign.

The hall of Loyal Hall democracy was filled to overflowing last night by the crowd that came to attend the open meeting. If it had been a theater the "standing room only" sign would have been displayed early in the evening.

It had been announced that addresses would be delivered by S. C. Lumbard, H. P. Scherer and W. H. Shambaugh. All these gentlemen were present.

Mr. Lumbard was the first one called upon to speak. He paid his attention to the Oakley administration. Mayor Oakley, he said, started out in his administration with a whoop and a howl for reform. He carried out this policy for a time—long enough to impress a certain element with the idea that he was doing great things. Then he relaxed his vigilance and has allowed things to run in the manner that suited himself best. He has shown favoritism in his appointments and also in the administration of justice to those who have been brought before him. A person who was charged with a trivial offense was made to feel the strength of the law, while in the case of another person who was charged with law-breaking the mayor stuck the affidavit in his pocket because the offender was one of the favored few. The Oakley administration has made it a part of its policy to assess special taxes on everything in sight. First it taxed bicycles and vehicles. Next it assessed a special tax upon the poles of the telegraph, telephone, electric light and street railway companies. Now it wants to place a special taxation upon the natural gas company. All this, in my opinion, is undemocratic. The laws provide for an equal taxation of all property at a fair valuation and I do not think special taxation is just. The democrats should recover control of the city administration and if we nominate a good ticket and all work for it we will win success. I shall support the nominees of our convention, no matter who they may be.

Mr. Lumbard's remarks were heartily applauded.

H. P. Scherer next addressed the crowd. He urged complete organization among all the democrats. We are confronted by conditions which we cannot overcome unless we organize in every ward. Mr. Scherer gave a detailed statement of the manner in which the democrats managed the affairs of the city during the three years previous to the Oakley administration. He told how they built streets, alleys, new engine houses, city hall and other improvements on a levy of $1.10. The Oakley administration, which has collected about $80,000 a year more than did the previous democratic administration, has nothing to show for the money. If democrats will organize and nominate a good ticket and then support that ticket they will again be placed in control of city affairs. It will be my pleasure to work for the ticket which is nominated whether I am chosen for mayor or not.

Prolonged applause greeted Mr. Scherer's address. He was followed by W. H. Shambaugh, who attacked the Oakley administration for its system of city government. He said money had been unnecessarily expended for salaries and cited the comptroller's office to prove it. He said the comptroller, himself, at a salary of $2,000 a year could do all the work of the office, but that he had one clerk all the time and during a portion of the year two clerks. Mr. Shambaugh arraigned the administration in a fearless and convincing manner and his address was frequently punctuated with applause by the crowd.

S. M. Foster was called upon and in his speech he produced figures to prove the assertion that every move that has been made by the Oakley administration has been for the purpose of strengthening it politically. He recounted what he termed willful attempts to mislead the democratic council and the people by juggling figures and making threats of vetoing the tax levy ordinance. Mr. Foster urged the democrats to stand together and support the ticket which will be nominated at the convention, having as their motto, "The party first, the candidates afterward."

TWO MEN LOST

By the Wreck of the Schooner, Kate Scranton.

NEW YORK, March 12.—The schooner, Kate Scranton, owned and captained by Charles Bates, which went ashore about a mile east of the Eaton Neck life saving station, Long Island, yesterday afternoon, went to pieces during the night. Two of the crew were drowned, Mate Oliver Christrieman, a Norwegian, and George Upther, aged fifty, a colored man.

National Committeeman.

CHICAGO, March 12.—Ex-Governor Fifer was unanimously elected national committeeman from Illinois by the republican state central committee today in place of W. J. Campbell, deceased.

THE LAST ROUND

In the Fight for Republican National Delegate

Will be Fought in the Arena at the Auburn Convention--All Parties Preparing for the Scrap.

From present indications it appears that the republican scrap over the position of delegate to the national convention has not yet been settled. The election in this county last Saturday, it will be remembered, resulted in the selection of a majority of delegates who are for R. T. McDonald. Yet, the Skelton and Law people claim they have enough delegates from this county to make a fair showing for their favorites at the Auburn convention. In addition to this they say that some of the other counties have chosen delegates who are favorable to them and to other candidates who are scattered through the district, and that it is by no means certain as yet that McDonald will have a majority in the convention. Both the Skelton and Law factions threaten to carry the war into Africa, or rather into the Auburn convention, and raise a row that will cause somebody's hair to stand on end.

Some of the conservative republicans of this city are counseling the warring elements to quit. They say they should recognize the fact that they were whipped and accept the defeat gracefully, but the other fellows say "nit."

It looks now as though the convention at Auburn on the 19th of this month, at which time the delegate is to be elected, will be a hot one, and that it will be a fight to a finish between the Fort Wayne delegations, who are each for their own man and "feruinst" anyone else.

FOR THE CRANKS.

News and Notes About the National Game.

Fort Wayne Invited to Join a New League--A False Rumor--Earl Sumner Signed.

Manager William Meyer has received a letter from H. F. Schmidt, manager of the Terre Haute base ball club, accepting the dates and terms for the exhibition games mentioned in THE SENTINEL several days ago. Schmidt also states that a league is being formed with Evansville and Terre Haute, Ind., Springfield, Jacksonville, Decatur, Danville and Bloomington, Ill., and he says he "wishes Fort Wayne was in it too." It will be a strong league and all are good ball towns, but Fort Wayne is firmly fixed in the Inter State league and will not change.

A silly rumor was heard on the streets a few days ago that the Inter-State league had collapsed. There is no truth in it. The success of the organization is assured. A meeting is to be held soon for the purpose of arranging the schedule of games.

Capt. George Tebeau, of the Fort Wayne team, writes from Denver that he has signed Earl Sumner, a red hot ball player from Braintree, Mass., at a salary of $100 a month. Sumner played with an eastern league team last year.

THE COURTS.

A Bunch of Small Cases on the Dockets.

Term of Justice Hays Ends Tomorrow --End of Long Litigation in the Supreme Court.

The county commissioners have reappointed W. H. Goshorn superintendent of bridges and public buildings.

The term of Charles. A. Hays as justice of the peace expires tomorrow. This will leave four justices in the township, instead of five as heretofore.

Henry Wilhelm, who was fined a few days ago by Justice France, paid his fine immediately instead of being sent to jail.

The case of Louis Metcalf vs. Mary Walker, suit in replevin, has been appealed from Justice Hays to the circuit court.

The will of the late Mary Brunette has been admitted to probate. The property is left to her sons.

George W. Louttit, of Fort Wayne, was admitted to practice in the supreme court yesterday on motion of M. V. B Spencer.

Henry W. Fry sues one McFeely for possession of real estate. The case will be tried before Justice Hays Saturday morning.

LITIGATION ENDED

Senator T. E. Ellison has been remarkably successful in several cases, in which he is attorney, which have been decided recently in the supreme court of the state at Indianapolis. The cases grew out of a ditch which had been established and located in Jay and Blackford counties. The first case was tried in 1881. The last ten were decided yesterday by the supreme court. During these fifteen years over forty cases that have been stubbornly contested have been carried to the supreme court and all with one important exception have been decided against the contestants. Every attorney of the Blackford county bar have been engaged on one side or the other. Latterly Judge Byron K. Elliott, of Indianapolis, and Messrs Gregory and Templar, of Muncie, have been actively assisting the contestants while Mr. T. E. Ellison of this city, has been employed by those in favor of the work. Judge Elliott and Mr. Ellison argued the cases orally before the supreme court about the middle of February. We understand that the supreme court sustained all of Mr. Ellison's contentions and puts the matter forever at rest.

DIED AT RICHMOND.

Word Received of the Death of Mrs. Will Morris.

She Was Formerly Miss Lily Ward, of This City--The Funeral Takes Place Monday Morning.

It is with profound sorrow that THE SENTINEL announces the death of Mrs. William Morris, which occurred at her home in Richmond, Va., at 6 o'clock last evening.

Mrs. Morris was formerly Miss Lily Ward, daughter of Mrs. H. N. Ward, of this city. She was married to Mr. Morris a number of years ago when that gentleman was master mechanic of the Wabash railroad in this city. Later they resided at Grand Rapids, Mich., where Mr. Morris was officially connected with the Chicago and West Michigan railroad, and a few years ago they removed to Richmond, Va., Mr. Morris having been appointed superintendent of motive power on the Chesapeake and Ohio road, with headquarters in that city.

Mrs. Morris visited her parents during the holidays and was at that time in the best of health. Nothing was known of her illness and the first intimation of it came last night when Mr. and Mrs. Ward received a telegram conveying the startling intelligence that she had died.

When she returned home to Richmond from this city after her visit here she was accompanied by her sister, Miss Anna Ward, who was at her bedside at the time of her death.

Mrs. Morris was beloved in a wide circle in this city. She was of a bright, sunny disposition, just such a person as would endear herself to all her friends and acquaintances. The sad news of her demise will be received with a pang of sorrow by all who knew her when she was at home in this city, a winsome and beautiful lady.

The remains will be brought to the home of her parents in this city for interment. They will arrive tomorrow and will be accompanied by the bereaved husband, their four-year-old daughter, Miss Anna Ward and Mr. and Mrs. Stephens. The funeral will be held at the Episcopal church, at 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon.

BURNED OUR FLAG.

Students Further Insult Uncle Sam.

Police Interference Only Saved the United States Consulate From an Assault.

MADRID, March 12.—Further demonstrations of students against the United States as a result of the Cuban resolutions of congress, have occurred. At Corunna, 200 students belonging to the university joined in a parade yesterday, cheered for Spain and burned an American flag. The police, however, succeeded in preventing the rioters from approaching the United States consulate. At Alicante, the mayor and police, while dispersing a similar anti-American demonstration, were pelted with stones. A number of policemen sustained injuries.

DR. C. M. METCALF.

Death of the Secretary of the State Board of Health.

INDIANAPOLIS, March 12.—Dr. Charles N. Metcalf, for thirteen years secretary of the state board of health, died yesterday morning of pneumonia, at his home, No. 186 North Senate avenue. He was taken ill last Friday and it soon became evident that his condition was serious. Dr. Metcalf has been in poor health for several years and was not prepared physically to withstand the disease which ended his life.

Dr. Metcalf was born in Herkimer county, New York, in 1846. He was a Mason, an Odd Fellow and an Elk. The funeral will be held tomorrow afternoon, with the burial at Crown Hill. The members of the three societies to which he belonged will attend the services.

E Buck, chairman of the state executive committee, pledged to McKinley, the other three being for Reed. The First, Seventh and Eleventh districts have not acted.

ANOTHER war cloud has disappeared. The Venezuelan question has been amicably settled.

THE republicans of this district will hold their congressional convention one week from today, at Auburn.

THE Kentucky senatorial fight is proof convincing that United States senators ought to be elected by popular vote.

A CORRESPONDENT of the Northwestern Christian Advocate (Methodist) suggests that Methodist bishops wear robes on public occasions. The masses of the Methodists would say "no" to that.

THE question in Kentucky now is, 'Who will have a majority in the legislature after the two old parties are through firing each other?"

CITY politics claim a good deal of attention just now. With the democrats the interesting question is: "Who will be the candidate for mayor?"

INDIANAPOLIS papers are discussing Sunday base ball. The News of that city, which has the largest circulation of any paper in the state and which stands for the best elements in society, vigorously opposes the violation of the law.

THE Loyal Hall Democracy has grown so rapidly in membership that they will be compelled to move into more commodious quarters. It is a club founded on excellent principles and will be one of the permanent political organizations of the city.

THE great majority of the citizens of Indiana hope that the supreme court of the state will sustain the constitutionality of the Nicholson law in the test cases which they are now hearing. The law is a good one and has done much to eliminate many of the evils resulting from the liquor traffic.

THE suit begun in Marion county to set aside the legislative apportionment act of 1885 reached the supreme court yesterday afternoon. The court will be asked to take up the case at once. There will probably be a motion to advance filed immediately. The attorneys for the republican state committee hope to get a decision in a month or six weeks.

A NEW republican paper is to be issued in Pittsburg. It will make its first appearance next Monday evening, and is to be called "The Pittsburg Daily News." Its projectors say that it is to be printed "in reponse to an admitted demand in Pittsburg for an afternoon paper that is not befouled by sensationalism, but rather one that will be clean, reliable and entertaining."

WITHIN the past four days, says a telegram from St. Louis, friends and supporters of Major McKinley, of Ohio, have secured accommodations for 1 500 people there during the republican national convention. The Pennsylvania delegation gave up its contract with the Lindell hotel to care for 300 people and the space was eagerly gobbled up by the Ohioans. Then Iowa gave up accommodations for 300 people and the McKinleyites also secured them. The Marylanders were the third to throw up the sponge, and before the ink on the telegram was cold the Buckeyes had the accommodations. Aside from this, the McKinley forces have made contracts with the Southern hotel for all the space they would give them, and the same thing has been done by them at the Lindell, St. James, Laclede, Planter's, and at every hostlery where any accommodations whatever could be secured.

SOME one has summed up the problems that youth has to face in the expressive remark that every person starting out in life has two great sets of institutions to choose between—the institutions of good and the institutions of evil. If this be true it is also true that the category of good institutions contain none that deserve to rank higher than the Christian Endeavor societies, the Epworth leagues and the Baptist unions. Those who are not acquainted with the workings of these societies have but little idea of their true nature or the beneficent office they fill in society. Their greatest value consists in the associations that they throw around the young. "A human being follows his associates" is an old aphorism, and in the case of the young people's societies this is illustrated by the fact that perhaps nine-tenths of the persons who enter their portals are led by association into the broader realm of the church, becoming useful members of society and builders of character. Fort Wayne has her full quota of these church societies and there is no city in the country where the members are more active or more devoted to their cause. The work which they do is done in a quiet way. It is in deeds of mercy and help, in the spiritual elevation of souls and the building up of religion, and it is having its influence for good in our city.

The World's Final War.

There is the possibility of a tremendous war in Europe. It has been predicted for half a century by those who recognized the tension of the relation between the nations there, and what is looked for a long time generally comes to hand at last. It is possible that the United States would be involved in such a war if it came, though all Americans must hope we should not be.

At any rate, if it should come this much is tolerably certain—it would be the last great war in which the nations of the earth as represented by the civilization of today would be involved. It has been many a year since Great Britain had a very important war all on her own account. The last great fight in which the British flag was carried—carried, too, to victory—was the battle of Waterloo. Where the next great fight will be it is possible the year 1896 will develop.

The reason that there can never be more than one more great war as society is now organized is that the implements of fighting have reached such deadly effectiveness and precision that arbitration must perforce be resorted to unless the nations desire mutually to wipe one another off the face of the globe. Dynamite has never yet been used in a great war. It will be in the next one. The storming of a fort, which has heretofore constituted so picturesque and effective a part of warfare, can never be possible in the old way. Hereafter a part of the defenses of a fort will be torpedoes set round about underground. If a storming party approaches, a little child may press the button that will send them one and all to eternity. Or if, on the other hand, it is the force inside the fort that has the fortune to be blown up, the mines will be laid secretly underneath the fort, and a button pressed many miles away will send the fort and its inmates to destruction. Ships may be and will be blown up in the same way, no matter how thick their armor. The armor cannot be made that will withstand the power of dynamite.

In the small arm service of the modern fighting hosts the rapid firing rifle has attained such deadly proficiency, in connection with the smokeless powder now in use, that it is a hundred times as effective as the old rifle was. The glory and romance of battle belong to the past. Wholesale destruction of life by sea and land will be the inevitable result of a great war.

There are no more opportunities for picturesque daring and deeds of personal valor by which a hero makes his name immortal. Marching out to battle will simply mean standing up to be shot, with the chances two to one in favor of being shot to death. The personal valor of the future must be exhibited on the moral battlefield.

The inevitable result of settling their differences by fighting them out will be such wholesale destruction of life by sea and land that the nations will never dare again to invoke the red demon of war. Yes; there may be one more great war in the history of the present world cycle. There will never be more than one. It will be followed by universal disarmament.

Psycho-therapeutics.

That is what in the Illinois Medical college at Chicago they call the science and art of healing a patient by hypnotic suggestion. The college in question has been the first in our country to establish a regular department, with attendant professorship, in this branch of medical lore.

The method adopted is to put the patient into the hypnotic state. In this, while his ordinary consciousness is dormant, his subconsciousness is very much awake and is taking in everything. In the hypnotic condition the patient is talked to energetically. A vivid impression is made on his mind that when he "wakes," as it must be called for want of a better term, the cause of his trouble will have disappeared, and he will be ailing no more. This treatment, repeated sometimes daily, sometimes two or three times a week, will, it is claimed, often effect a cure. Such is the method taken by the French professors at Nancy and at Paris.

The doctors at the Illinois Medical college believe that if French physicians can cure by hypnotic suggestion, Americans can do the same, as they undoubtedly can.

The Chicago professors will hold clinics for the treatment of patients. They expect to be especially successful in all diseases of a nervous type, notably stammering and the habit of drunkenness. The drunkard will be hypnotized from time to time, and assured each time that he will thereafter loathe the very smell of alcohol. The professors are sure also that they can cure rheumatism.

It has been said over and again that if a suicide would put off his intention of self murder for 24 hours something would happen that would save him every time. A curious illustration of this has been furnished in Chicago. A German carpenter had been out of work since Christmas. He had a wife and three children and a father and mother dependent on him. Maddened by the prospect of starvation for these loved ones, he first chloroformed them till they were unconscious and shot them dead one after another. Then he shot himself. Two kindly neighbors called next morning at his rooms to tell him they had found work for him. They noticed the odor of chloroform on entering the place. They looked through the rooms and found the seven bodies stretched cold in death.

If Salisbury wants to have the good will and sympathy of a majority of the American people when presently he gets all Europe on his back, let him now agree to conclude with the United States a treaty under which all questions between the two English speaking governments shall be submitted henceforth to peaceful arbitration. He need not say a word about Venezuela, but can just let that matter come under the treaty regulations in due time along with the Bering sea affair, the Alaska boundary and other matters.

The sale of nine Leadville mines to an English syndicate recently does not look as though there was much fear of war between the two English speaking countries.

Napoleon Bonaparte, one of the most forceful men in all history, a man continually wrapped in schemes and campaigns, in plots and counter-plots, striving intently and ambitiously for success and power—a man whose utter disregard for human life made his battles the bloodiest the world has ever seen—this man found bitterness in his triumphs because he had no heir to whom to bequeath his greatness. Josephine was divorced largely for this reason. Many women are incapable of bearing children. Many more of them are afflicted with disorders of the organs directly feminine so that bearing children would be dangerous to them, and unfair to the children. Every child deserves the heritage of health. The children cannot receive this from a sickly mother. There is no reason why they should have such a thing as "female weakness." It is an unnecessary as it is distressing. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription cures all forms of distinctly feminine sickness. It purifies, strengthens and invigorates. It is prepared for just this one purpose and no other. It's the only medicine now before the public for woman's peculiar ailments, adapted to her delicate organization by a regularly graduated physician, an experienced and skilled specialist in these maladies. It cannot do harm in any condition of the system. Its sales exceed the combined sales of all other medicines for women.

THE NICHOLSON LAW.

Its Constitutionality Discussed in the Supreme Court.

Judge Zollars, of This City, Makes an Argument Against the Law for the Liquor Men.

INDIANAPOLIS, March 11 -The supreme court yesterday heard oral argument as to the constitutionality of the Nicholson temperance law, passed by the last legislature. The importance of the case and the prominence of the attorneys employed brought to the court room one of the largest audiences that has ever assembled there.

The law, since it went into force a little less than a year ago, has been attacked in the circuit courts in many of the counties. Some twelve or fifteen cases have found their way to the supreme court. In order that the whole law might be passed upon by the court in a single decision it was agreed by the attorneys for the liquor men that cases raising all the questions involved in all the suits begun in the lower courts should be bunched or consolidated in the supreme court. As the result of this agreement, ten cases were consolidated.

The attorneys employed by those who wish to see the law broken down are Elliott & Elliott and Baker & Daniels, of this city; Allan Zollars, of Fort Wayne; Lamb & Beasley and ex-Judge Hammill, of Terre Haute, and the Stuart Bros., of Lafayette. For the state, Attorney General Ketcham, Charles W. Smith, Frederick E. Matson and Ritter & Baker, all of this city, appear.

Judge Hammill made the first argument against the law, Judge Elliott followed and then Judge Zollars spoke in opposition to the law.

Judge Zollars confined his argument largely to attacking the faulty title of the Nicholson law, and to show that the title did not fill constitutional requirements. He contended that section 9 of the act really conferred upon voters of a ward or township a power as effectual as prohibition, without requiring a vote, but merely signing of a remonstrance, and that an applicant can thus be defeated and prevented from obtaining a license without any reasons being given. He held that the very word remonstrance indicated that there must be reasons, and that was the only sort of remonstrance known to the state of Indiana. The remonstrance which takes away from the board the right to hear and the power to grant a license he held to be wrong No man reading the title of the act would expect to find such a remonstrance in the body of the act and such a title is a fraud and a deceit. The section comprises the suspension of a general law and overthrows every one of those provisions of the law of 1875. If the ninth section is upheld, the majority in some wards and townships may defeat all license and this establishes prohibition. It gives the power to suspend the general law by means of such remonstrances. The law of the state is suspended by the filing of the remonstrance which takes from the board the power to act. The applicant is cut off from a hearing, and this is prohibition.

The assaults upon the law were made on the ground that the local option feature is unconstional; that the law is not complete in itself, but dependent upon the other liquor laws of the state; is not a constitutional amendment, and that the title of the law is defective in not complying with the constitutional provisions.

The argument was purely technical and consisted in citing decisions of the courts of other states on the questions involved.

The defense referred to the conditions that had brought the legislature to the enactment of the law; to the intent of the legislature as expressed in the act, and to the fact that it was a restrictive measure only, where a majority of the people wanted the traffic restricted, thus framed to meet the wishes of all classes and eminently liberal in its scope.

In closing the attorney general declared that even local prohibition is not in violation of the constitution.

A RELIC OF THE PAST.

NO LONGER NECESSARY.

A Medical Discovery Which Will Change the Treatment of All Such Diseases.

It has long been thought not only by some physicians but by the people in general that the common, painful and exceedingly annoying trouble, piles, was practically incurable by any other means than a surgical operation, and this belief has been the cause of years of needless suffering, because of the natural dread of surgical operations.

There are many salves, ointments and similar remedies on the market which afford some relief in cases of piles, but the Pyramid Pile Cure is the only preparation so far introduced that can be reliably depended upon to cure to stay cured, every form of itching, bleeding or protruding piles.

Mrs. M. C. Hinkley of 601 Mississippi St., Indianapolis, was told by her physicians that nothing but a surgical operation costing between seven and eight hundred dollars could cure her as she had suffered for 15 years; yet even in such a case as hers the Pyramid Pile Cure accomplished a complete cure. She says: "I knew an operation would be death to me and tried the Pyramid with very little hope and it is not to be wondered at that I am so enthusiastic in its praise."

Major Dean of Columbus, Ohio, says he suffered for 40 years from piles and 20 years from itching piles and in his case two packages of the Pyramid cured him.

Mr. D. E. Reed of South Lyons, Mich., says I would not take $500 and be placed back where I was before I used the Pyramid Pile Cure. I suffered for years and it is now eighteen months since I used it and not the slightest trace of the trouble has returned.

The Pyramid Pile Cure is sold by nearly all druggists at 50 cents and $1 per package and as it contains no opium, cocaine or other poisonous drug can be used with perfect safety.

No one need suffer from piles in any form who will give this excellent remedy a trial. Made by the Pyramid Co., Albion, Mich. Any druggist can get it for you.

WITH HEART AND SOUL.

Our Ministers Proclaim a Gospel of Health.

Show to Weak, Tired and Debilitated People

How Health and Strength Can be Easily Obtained.

There are no words so strong as these spoken by the true minister of the Gospel. One knows and feels, instinctively, that such words come from the heart, and are uttered only with the earnest purpose of doing good to humanity.

The boundless influence for good for those who are weak, nervous, debilitated and run down in health, of the strong and powerful words of these well known clergymen is an assurance of cure for sufferers. These great preachers thus proclaim a new Gospel of Health to the sick and discouraged which means renewed health, hope, happiness Their good tidings are doubly welcome at this season, for in the spring almost everybody is run down or ailing and needs just such information in regard to what to do.

Rev. F. H. Buffum, of Winchester, N. H, who is Grand Army Chaplain for the state of New Hampshire, says:

"The remedial effect of Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy on the weaknesses and nervous prostration of my wife, was so positive and speedy that we can heartily testify to its undoubted merits."

Rev. G. L. Wells, of Hardwick, Vt, writes:

"I have used Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy with most excellent results. It did great good for

Rev. C. D. R. Meacham, pastor, Baptist Church, Townshend, Vt., states: "I am very glad to say in regard to Dr. Greene's great remedy that when my blood was badly impaired, Dr. Greene's medicine gave me wonderful relief. At the present time my health is as good as at any time in my life, and my confidence in Dr. Greene's remedy is constantly increasing."

Rev. Henry Langford, of Weston, W. Va., says: "I became so nervous I was unable to hold my head steady in the pulpit, nor could I hold or handle my books and papers without great trembling and weakness of my hands and arms. I was so nervous that I could scarcely feed myself. In fact, my nervous system was wrecked.

"I took Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy, and am wonderfully improved in health and strength. Dr. Greene's Nervura did it. I can heartily and truthfully recommend it to the sick. Too much cannot be said in praise of this splendid medicine. I say this for the good of other sufferers from nervous and prostrating diseases who can be cured by this remedy."

Clergymen strongly recommend the people to use Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy because they know it cures, and because it is a physician's prescription, the discovery of the most successful specialist in curing nervous and chronic diseases, Dr. Greene, of 35 West 14th St., New York City, who can be consulted free, personally or by letter.

RECORDS BROKEN

In the Bicycle Tournament at San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 12—Two world's records were broken at the indoor bicycle tournament last night. Egan and Jaegling on a tandem rode a half mile in 1:00 3 5, and Metcalf, paced by the same team, rode the distance in 1:01. The final of the ten mile club race was contested by Wells, of the Bay City Wheelmen; Squires, of the Acme club; Leavitt, of the San Francisco Road club, and Birdsall, of the California club. Each man took his turn at setting the pace, until the seventy-sixth lap, when Wells resumed the lead and commenced his famous long sprint, with Squires working like a demon to take the yole from him, but his efforts were unsuccessful, Wells pushing his wheel over the lap a comparatively easy winner. Time, 25:28 2 5. The final of the quarter mile race was won by Edwards, he defeating Tantau easily. Time, 0:35 4 5. Delmas won the mile handicap from the fifty yard mark; Cook second, eighty yards. Time, 2:27 2 5.

The solid through trains of the Nickel Plate road, equipped with all modern appliances for safety, speed and comfort, are a prominent feature of that popular line. A COLONY OF DUNKARDS.

Three Hundred Will Soon Start for New Homes in Dakota.

LOGANSPORT, Ind., March 12—A. B. Peters, of Condo, N. D, is visiting Mexico, Flora Denver and other points in Cass and Miami counties, which are settled by the religious sect styled Dunkards, or Brethren. Mr. Peters is an exceptionally intelligent member of this queer sect, and is working in the interests of the church in organizing a colony of people to accompany him to Condo which place is settled entirely by Dunkards. A large number of people have already arranged to go, and are disposing of their property preparatory to starting on the 24th of March. On that date Mr. Peters expects to leave Chicago at the head of three hundred emigrants from the Dunkard settlements in this part of the state. Among the inducements offered are government lands, fine climate, excellent timber land, certainty of crops and a home where they can practice the religious beliefs of their church undisturbed by other denominations.

They indulge in many queer practices in their interpretation of the scriptures, and have an instinctive horror of worldly frivolities. Owing to the surroundings of the settlements in Indiana, however, it has proven a difficult matter to train their children according to the church doctrines, and a split in the church resulted, one branch being known as the Progressive Dunkards and the other as the Old Order. A large number have, therefore, embraced the opportunity to join the colony for the purpose of living in an atmosphere where their children will not be surrounded by worldly influences.

Cured of Gallstones.

May 27th, 1895.

The Dr. J. H. McLean Medicine Co.,

ST. LOUIS, MO.

GENTLEMEN: For upwards of ten years I suffered from what the doctors called neuralgia of the stomach, but they could do nothing for me. At one time I was taken with a most excruciating pain and in my agony I prayed for death to relieve me. My husband sent to Lincoln for another doctor, who came, and after examination, pronounced my trouble to be gallstones. The only relief I received was when the doctors injected morphine, and that was only temporary. I was reading in your almanac where

DR. J. H. McLEAN'S LIVER and KIDNEY BALM

Cured a case of gallstones. My husband thought I had better try it, so he bought a bottle. That bottle gave me so much relief I was encouraged to keep on with it. I used seven bottles, and am now, thanks to its great healing power, cured sound and well. I am unable to express my gratitude to you for the benefit I have received from your wonderful medicine. I have recommended it to many people since my recovery, and shall always do so when I have the opportunity. You may make use of this letter in any way you desire.

Yours respectfully,

MRS. LIZZIE SAXTON, Lancaster, Neb.

AFFAIRS OF THE RAIL.

The Promotors of the Belt Railway Strike an Obsticle.

The News of the Rail and Shop as Revealed by the Reporter's Note Book.

Recent surveys are not very encouraging to the promoters of the belt line railway in the east end. Three lines have been run and neither is thought to be practicable on account of the grade, which is estimated at seventy foot to the mile. However, the promoters have not given up the project and will no doubt hit upon a route which will be practicable and result in the construction of the road. Such a line would be of inestimable value to the railways centering here, as well as to the property interests in the east end.

MAY BUILD A TROLLEY LINE.

Indianapolis Journal: 'The project of building an electric trolley line from Terre Haute to Indianapolis is being investigated. The projectors wish to build it in the interest of the Vandalia company in its construction. It is well known that when the Terre Haute and Indianapolis was built a right of way 100 feet in width was secured, and the projectors of the electric road propose to utilize a portion of this right of way for such a line. The grading the entire distance would be very light, would not interfere with the steam road and could be constructed at a very light cost. The scheme of the projectors is for the electric line to do the local passenger business and admit of the passenger trains of the Vandalia running through with but two or three stops The matter is being agitated, it is stated, seriously, but whether it will materialize is still in doubt.

MINOR NOTES.

Pittsburg Fireman W. H. Carpenter is sick.

Boilermaker Frank Cherry is sick and off duty.

John Davidson, a Pittsburg car inspector, is sick.

Henry Lose, of the Pittsburg shops, is sick and off duty.

John Millhouse, a Pittsburg shopman, is disabled by a sprained ankle.

Master Mechanic W. W. Atterbury returned from Pittsburg this morning.

Sickness in his family prevents Engineer William Doty from going out on his run.

E B. Moore and Lloyd Judy, of the Pittsburg blacksmith shop, are sick and off duty.

James P. Orr, division freight agent of the Pittsburg, passed through this city this morning.

J. G. Nichter, of the Wabash shops, is off duty on account of the death of his brother in law.

The Vandalia is cutting down operating expenses by dropping men where possible in shops yards, etc., and after Monday next "hostlers" will be dispensed with.

The Terre Haute car works are building 500 ore cars for the Duluth and Iron Range road.

A. M. Schroyer, superintendent of telegraphy of the Pennsylvania, was in the city a few minutes last evening.

The Pittsburg, Cincinnati, Chicago and St. Louis will hold its annual meeting the second Tuesday in April.

Urban Bott, J. F. Peiper, James Olive, sr., N. J. Murphy and C. J. Mills, of the Wabash shops, are on the sick list.

Machinist Harry Hayes, of the Bass works, has gone to New Castle, Pa., to start a Corliss engine recently built by the Bass people.

John Sulzer, the Hanna street butcher, is preparing to build a new shop a short distance south of his present quarters.

G. Ketchum and J. H. Stein, freight car builders, are off duty, the former on account of sickness and the latter on account of an accident.

The shipments from the electric works today included a sixty-light incandescent dynamo to San Francisco and a motor to Springfield, Mass.

Engineer George Cooper, of the Nickel Plate, was summoned to Cleveland yesterday by a message which stated that his sister was very sick.

On Sunday night a special train made the run over the Chicago and Eastern Illinois from Terre Haute to Chicago in three hours and thirty-five minutes.

Freight traffic on the Pittsburg is beginning to assume greater activity than characterized it for several weeks. The trainmen are pretty busy this week.

Master Car Builder J. A. Graham and Lumber Yard Foreman M. W. Kemp, of the Pittsburg, went to Lima this morning, on business for the company.

James W. Brown, passenger conductor on the Panhandle, was buried Tuesday at Columbus, Ohio. He began work with the Panhandle twenty-six years ago as a brakeman.

Street Commissioner Nelson Thompson received a car load of cedar blocks from Michigan this morning. They will be used in repairing the block pavements.

The Nickel Plate is preparing to relay a portion of its tracks with a heavier steel rail the coming spring. A train load of rails passed through this city yesterday.

F. Schaefenocker, L. Radtke, F. Hasse and J. F. Schaefenocker, truck builders, have been transferred from the Lafayette street shop to the east car shops to work at repairs until truck building is resumed.

Nickel Plate Conductor McCormick is able to work again, after an illness of ten days. Conductor Kitselman, of the same road, also reported for duty yesterday, after an absence of a few days on account of private business.

All of the roads in the Western Passenger association are considering the advisability of doing away with sidewalk passenger men. The matter will come up at the next meeting of the association and it is likely that all the men will be dropped.

Clarence Bowman, the expert painter in the Pittsburg shops, has just completed lettering the windows for the room on Calhoun street occupied by Harry Quicksell, the agent of the Union Star Line. The work is fine and speaks well of Mr. Bowman's ability as a painter.

George Burns, chief clerk of Samuel Felton, president of the Queen and Crescent, will, on March 20, become coal agent of the Wabash. When Mr. Ramsey was general manager of the Big Four, Mr. Burns was with him, and now, as general manager of the Wabash, gives him this position.

Detectives are working on the recent attempts made to wreck Baltimore and Ohio trains, near Woodville, Porter county, by placing obstructions on the track. Heavy timbers were laid across the rails, and only the vigilance of train crews averted a number of accidents that would probably have sacrificed life and property.

As a result of a visit of First Vice President McCrea, Vice President Joseph Wood, General Manager Loree and John F. Miller, general superintendent of the Pennsylvania Southwestern lines, at Indianapolis, the Pennsylvania company will expend a considerable sum in that city the coming summer in improvements. The freight depot will be enlarged and possibly the shop facilities will be increased.

The special train which carried the county commissioners of the counties through which the Nickel Plate road passes to Chicago last Tuesday passed through this city at 9 o'clock this morning on the return trip. The object of the tour is supposed to be for the purpose of giving the commissioners a correct idea of the value of the road and rolling stock in order that a just and equitable tax assessment may be levied.

Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. CORBETT SIGNS THE ARTICLES

Leaves the Date in June Open to Suit Fitzsimmons' Pleasure.

PITTSBURG, March 12—The original articles of agreement for a fight between James J. Corbett and Robert Fitzsimmons, forwarded by the National Sporting club, of London, were received here last evening for Corbett's signature. Corbett read the agreement carefully and attached his signature without hesitancy. He agrees to every condition stipulated and fills in the blank regarding division of the purse with the words "winner to take all." He leaves the date in June, 1896, open for the club and Fitzsimmons to settle upon. To be original Corbett has added the following clauses:

"Marquis of Queensberry rules to govern the contest; each principal to be allowed the privilege of having gloves made to fit his hands; each principal to be notified two weeks before said contest of the exact number of rounds they are to participate in."

Principals request that the Associated Press of America be allowed to have their wires in said club for reporting said contest to America.

EX-COMMANDER BOOTH

Will Not Go to England to See His Father.

NEW YORK, March 12—Ex-Commander Booth has not yet answered the cablegram he received from his father, asking him to go to England and see the general. When asked if he would go to the other side, the commander said: 'I will not go. In a few days I will make a statement, in which I will make known the name of the new organization which I have started." A prominent Salvationist said last night the refusal of Mr. Booth to go to England by invitation of his father might cause the general to come to this country in a very short time.

The Twelfth District.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 12—Congressman Leighty has decided not to attend the republican congressional convention in the Twelfth Indiana district, which has been called for the 19th inst. Mr. Leighty's name will go before the convention. The name of Harry Hanna, of Fort Wayne, has been mentioned as a candidate.

"I can not say whether I will have any opposition or not," said Mr. Leighty. "Mr. Hanna's name has been mentioned in the newspapers, but some time ago I had a letter from him assuring me that he would not be a candidate, and friends have written me in the last few days saying that I would have no opposition. Circumstances may have altered the decision of Mr. Hanna."

DIDN'T LOOK FOR IT.

Words From a Stranger Smoothed the Way.

An elderly gentleman of fine presence sat in the business office of one of the largest grocery stores in an eastern city engaged in social converse with one of the proprietors. They were old friends and tried, and were renewing the old friendship. A salesman came into the office and presented his business to the grocer, handing him a card showing a table set with viands, while the words "Postum Cereal" and two red disks appeared underneath. In a few words the salesman stated that his firm was desirous of having the grocer handle 'Postum" in a large way. The friend and visitor suddenly spoke up and said, "Will, if you never sold that you have missed a good thing. We use it at home, and I have drank it for four months past in place of coffee because coffee disagreed with me. People in my town use the food drink quite universally, and you can depend on my word that it is pure, nourishing and healthful. It is made wholly of grains, and while it looks and tastes like coffee it has none of the harmful effects of coffee."

One can easily imagine that the good words helped the salesman in his introduction, and impressed him with the value of a good name and reputation.

The above occurance happened exactly as given.

Our best thoughts are constantly turned to making it attractive and helpful to you.

"Absolutely the Lowest Prices Always."

Dr. Jno. S. Irwin Writes.

OFFICE OF SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC SCHOOLS
FORT WAYNE Ind., March 9 1896.

E. P. Banning, M. D., Aveline Hotel.

MY DEAR DOCTOR:—It gives me great pleasure to say from its use in my own family, that I have a high estimate of the Banning System of Mechanical Support, and cheerfully recommend its use in cases for which it is intended.

Very truly yours,
JNO. S. IRWIN, M. D.

The system of support to which Dr. Irwin refers won the highest and only award at Chicago, and has been adopted by the United States government as "infinitely superior to others." Over ten thousand physicians pronounce it "the only reasonable method of treating, for a radical cure, rupture, spinal disease and deformities. Dr. Banning is introducing the system in this state and will examine cases at the Aveline hotel for a brief period. The Banning method radically cures ninety-eight per cent. of rupture without pain, operation or detention from business, and all cases of lateral curvature of the spine where there has been no osseous change.

CONSTABULARY RULE

Established in Kentucky's Capital Today.

FRANKFORT, Ky., March 12—The capital is under constabulary rule this morning. Mayor Julian ordered about twenty extra policemen to remain on duty in the rotunda of the capitol. They are under command of Chief Tobin, with instructions to keep the rotunda absolutely clear. This course was decided on by the mayor, after a consultation with the governor, who said to the mayor that if Frankfort was unable to afford police protection to members of the legislature he intended to do so if it took every state guard in Kentucky. At this hour, 10:30 o'clock, everything is quiet and there are no indications of a clash.

Shortly after the house opened Representative Kauffman walked down the aisle and began to gather up his papers about his desk. Mr Dunlap was not present when work was begun. Senators James and Walton were in the house chamber ready to be on hand when the joint session begins. Representative Speed, republican, sent up a resolution providing that,

WHEREAS, The authorities of Frankfort and Franklin county have failed to suppress lawlessness and mob violence has been attempted to obstruct legislation. Therefore, be it

Resolved, That it is the sense of this body that the capitol should be moved to a place where order and protection will be guaranteed.

The speaker ruled the resolution out of order.

As soon as the democratic leaders found that the two members of the senate, James and Walton, had secured admission to the house chamber, they raised a protest. Major Julian, who was on hand with extra policemen, was found and asked to see that the men were removed peaceably from the floor of the house before the joint assembly convened, in order that all trouble might be prevented. The mayor refused to do so, and said that it was within the power of the house, if it chose to do so, to eject the two men. Senator Bronston argued for some time with the mayor, but without effect. The situation is very critical, because the democrats declare that if an attempt is made by the two ex members to vote, it will surely precipitate trouble.

The republican leaders assert that both James and Walton have a right to the floor of the house, and some of the republicans were not slow to say that they will vote in joint assembly for United States senator. Adjutant General Collier said just now that the only difference between the unseating of Kauffman in the house and the declaring vacant of the seats of James and Walton in the senate was that Kauffman was legally unseated while James and Walton were not. It is expected that the adjutant general will take a hand in the case if trouble breaks out. The corridors are filled with an even more desperate set of men today than was present yesterday and if trouble does break out the consequences can not but be terrible. The men in the corridors are now guarding the door of the house chamber, however, while those outside gaze with longing eyes at the glass doors. Walton and James are sitting side by side in the left hand corner of the chamber, where it will be exceedingly hard to get at them in case of an attempt at expulsion.

The special police just before noon ordered all persons in the upper corridors to go below, and a dense mass of men are now gathered in the lower corridors of the capital. A few are still left in the cloak rooms of the house and senate, and these are now being slowly forced out and down the stairway. Among those in the senate cloak room are Chinn, Lillard, Williams, Thompson, Roach, Blackburn, and a number of special policemen. No attempt has been made to clear the senate lobby of the crowd now in it.

When the senate filed into the house chamber to ballot for United States senator, Mr. Dunlap had not arrived upon the floor or qualified. When this fact became known it served to cool to a great degree the excitement. It was evident that the endeavor of the republicans to elect a senator today would fail unless, of course, the vote of Populist Poor had been secured.

Half a dozen ladies were in the right hand lobby of the house chamber, in spite of the exciting times of yesterday. They included Miss Laura Clay, Mrs. J. K. Henry and mother, of Versailles.

Senator Bronston asked that the journal of each house of yesterday be read. An objection was made to the reading and the chair sustained the objection, and said that he had understood that only the journal of the joint assembly was to be read. Bronston made the point that the journal of the joint assembly must include the journals of each house. He again made the same argument as on yesterday that there was no separate journal kept of the joint assembly and that it was, therefore, necessary to have separate journals of each house read in accordance to the law and not that he wished to delay the taking of the ballot.

Mr. Landes said that the joint assembly had no jurisdiction to change or correct anything that occurred in either house on yesterday and that Bronston had no right to make a request to have anything read save the journal of the joint assembly. He asked the chair to declare the gentleman out of order. Mr. Blandford said that the joint assembly had no right to approve or correct any part of the journal of the house or senate of yesterday and therefore neither should be read. Bronston said: "The time has come when we must understand each other. The journals of the house and senate of yesterday are but a part of the journal of the joint assembly."

The chair decided that the joint assembly was a separate assembly, distinct from each house, and that the members were only entitled to have read proceedings of the joint assembly.

After more wrangling, Sallyer, democrat, moved that the reading of the Journal of the joint assembly be dispensed with. Agreed to.

Before the call of the roll on the ballot was begun Senator Bronston stated that he understood that there was stationed in the corridor a platoon of police, he supposed for the purpose of preserving peace and good order. He continued, "I ask why certain persons now on the floor of this house are here. I ask that first as a request and second as a motion that every one be excluded from the floor of this house save members of the joint assembly, officers, and the press."

Mr. Barnett made the point that the motion was out of order. The chair said he thought the motion was out of order, but he would put it to the assembly anyway. The republicans refused to vote with the intention of breaking a quorum. Edrington voted with the democrats for the motion, as did Poor also. The chair announced that no quorum had voted, and the motion was lost.

The presiding officer announced that he was still of the opinion that seventy members constituted a quorum and would so rule, and that in all ballots for senator seventy members must be voting to insure election.

The chair ordered the call of the roll, which showed 130 members present. There were only two pairs. The ballot resulted:

Blackburn, 51.
Carlisle, 12.
Buckner, 1.

The republicans and Populist Poor refused to vote and the chair declared that no election had been had. Upon motion the assembly adjourned until tomorrow.

The democrats are much pleased with the ruling of Lieutenant Governor Worthington in today's joint assembly, and say if seventy votes are required for a quorum, as stated by him, that there will be no election this session. Republican leaders still declare that a majority of those present is a quorum. Both sides seem delighted that there was no trouble of any kind.

STILL ARGUING.

Reported Settlement of the Boundary Dispute Premature.

A Peaceful Ending of the Dispute is Anticipated, Though It May Come Months Later.

WASHINGTON, March 12—It can be stated positively, notwithstanding publications to the contrary, that no settlement has yet been reached of the Venezuelan boundary question, but according to the best authority matters are proceeding in such fashion as to warrant the belief that there will be a satisfactory outcome. It is admitted that at present it cannot be told whether the ultimate settlement of this question will be affected as the result of direct negotiations between Great Britain and Venezuela, initiated through the medium of some mutually friendly power, or as the conclusion of the work of our own Venezuelan boundary commission, but in one way or another a peaceful and honorable settlement of the dispute is believed to be firmly probable in the end, though this end still may be far removed in point of time. If negotiations directly between Venezuela and Great Britain have been resumed at Caracas, the fact is not known to the officials here, who should be advised for their own guidance, and as the Venezuelan commission is proceeding diligently to the discharge of its duties of weighing all of the evidence obtainable respecting the actual location of the boundary line, and in this has been assured of the co operation of both the parties to the dispute, the public expectation appears to turn in that direction. Owing to the limited number of advance copies of the British blue book containing the British case which have been received so far, the commission has been obliged to struggle along with one single copy, which is of course inadequate for the simultaneous study of all the members, but it is expected that within a day or two the mails will bring a sufficient supply of the documents from London to facilitate the progress of the work. Meanwhile, so far as the document has been examined, it can be stated that it is not regarded as bearing out the promise of invulnerability claimed for it in London. In fact it is in many points regarded as open to impeachment as to actual historical events recited.

Farmers Get Cheap Whiskey.

GREENSBURG, Ind., March 12—Agents have been peddling whiskey over this county for the past two days. They traveled on horseback and carried from two to four one-gallon jugs in a sack, which was slung across the horse's back. Several farmers in different parts bought the liquor, paying from fifty to seventy-five cents per gallon. It is not known how or where the agents got their supply. They did not tarry long and are now working Rush county.

SETTLEMENT REACHED.

Satisfactory Conclusion of the Venezuelan Question.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 12—A settlement of the Venezuelan question has been reached. It will be announced at an early day. Of this satisfactory conclusion of the controversy the president has had knowledge for two days past. Great Britain has acted with a magnanimity which commends her to the severest critics. She concedes so much that there will be little left to arbitrate should arbitration be necessary. It is not improbable that the entire matter may now be settled outside the Venezuelan commission by the president and Lord Salisbury. Under the terms, so far as outlined, Great Britain agrees to submit all of the questions in dispute to amicable adjustment, with the president, through the state department, as one of the contracting parties. That Venezuela would agree to almost anything suggested by the United States has been known all along. It is surmised that the attitude of some of the influential London papers in pointing out alleged defects in the British blue book may have had something to do with the change of attitude by Queen Victoria's ministers. The president was in very high spirits last night over the favorable turn in the controversy between the two nations.

LONDON, March 12.—The permanent under secretary of state for foreign affairs, Sir Thomas Henry Sanderson, was asked today if the report, cabled here from the United States, that a settlement of the Venezuelan question has been reached, was correct. He said that he would be glad to know that the Venezuelan dispute was settled. "But," he added, "I know nothing about such a settlement as the one reported in New York having been reached. For all I know, however, a settlement may be near; but I have not heard of its attainment."

FOREIGN BULLETINS.

The Army of the Negus Reaches Entisico.

Italians Fleeing From Italy to Escape Military Service—China Secures a Loan.

ROME, March 12—The latest advices from Massowah are that the army of the Negus has reached Entisico, half way between Adowa and Adigrat. The forces of Osman Digna have arrived at Guluset.

PARIS, March 12—The railroad trains crossing the frontier from Italy are crowded with Italians who are leaving that country to escape military service in Africa.

The Eclair today, commenting on the Cuban resolutions of congress, says that in view of the "exaggerated pretentions," of the United States, it is "difficult to see why European diplomats cannot, at least, extend their good offices to Spain."

PEKIN, March 12—The Anglo-German loan of 100,000,000 taels has been issued at 94, with interest at 5 per cent. The contract stipulates that the customs administration is to remain unchanged.

CONSTANTINOPLE, March 12—Two of the assistants of Miss Clara Barton, president of the American Red Cross society, have received permits to proceed to Alexandria. Miss Barton will remain here for the present.

STRANGE PHENOMENON

Noticed in Various Parts of Nebraska.

OMAHA, Neb., March 12—A strange phenomenon has been noticed in various parts of Nebraska. Water stands higher in wells and is found in larger volume in streams than for several years at this season. There has been very little rain in Nebraska during the past fall and winter, yet streams which were dry last year are filling with water from unknown sources and wells show more water than usual. The weather bureau has begun an investigation and the railroads are assisting.

DUESTROW SENTENCED.

Will be Hanged for the Murder of His Wife and Baby.

UNION, Mo., March 12—Dr. Arthur Duestrow, the so called millionaire murderer of St. Louis, who was convicted in the circuit court here a short time ago of killing his wife and baby in St. Louis, was brought before Judge Hirzel today and sentenced to be hanged April 22. Duestrow will be sent back to the St. Louis jail for safe keeping.

Raines Excise Bill.

ALBANY, N. Y., March 12—Voting on the Raines excise bill, which passed the senate on Tuesday, will begin in the assembly at 4 o'clock this afternoon. First will come eight amendments which have been proposed, and then there will be a motion to strike out the enacting clause, so that the final vote can scarcely be reached before 6 o'clock. Some opponents of the measure profess a belief that the bill will fail of passage in the assembly.

Voted Against Woman.

LONDON, March 12—The senate of Cambridge university, by a vote of 183 to 171, has rejected the proposition to appoint a committee to consider the question of conferring degrees upon women.

Firm Reorganized.

NEW YORK, March 12—The old carriage firm of J. W. Brewster & Co., which failed last October, has been reorganized under the title of J. W. Brewster & Co., reorganized. James B. Brewster is the president of the new corporation, which starts with a capital of $50 000.

AFFAIRS OF STATE.

Cuban Resolutions Come in for a Share of Attention.

WASHINGTON, March 12—There is no abatement of public interest in the Cuban debate in the senate, as is evidenced by the large crowds which continue to fill the galleries to their full capacity. A number of the ladies of the diplomatic corps, who were in the diplomatic gallery, and some of them occupied front seats, were supplied with opera glasses, with which they surveyed the senators. Mr. Sherman gave notice that he would endeavor to secure a vote on the Cuban report at the earliest possible moment. After an hour was consumed in clearing away routine matters the Cuban resolutions were laid before the senate and Mr. Hill, of New York, was recognized. He was given marked attention and in opening said he would vote against the conference report and would confine his remarks mainly to an explanation of his reasons therefor.

He pointed out that this being a conference report, the resolution could not be amended. He would, therefore, vote against the report in order that at a subsequent time amendments might be made. The senator particularly objected to the third clause of the resolutions, stating that "the United States has not intervened in the struggles between any European governments and their colonies, but that owing to the proximity of Cuba, the United States should be prepared to intervene." This he declared to be ambiguous and unmeaning. We had intervened in such controversies. We had intervened and recognized the countries which had been colonies of Spain. What the resolution sought to convey was a threat to intervene. To this extent the resolution was unnecessary. It is subject to doubtful construction and a mischief breeder. It was liable to compromise us. The phrase that the 'United States should be prepared to protect the legitimate interests of our citizens by intervention," sounded like a threat, or it was buncom. "If this resolution means that we should increase our army let us say so frankly and frame a bill 'for that purpose," said Mr. Hill. "If it means we should increase our navy let us state it frankly and fearlessly and frame a bill to that end. Let us not indulge in idle boasts and threats and doubtful phrases as to our being prepared to protect legitimate interests by intervention."

At 2 o'clock there was a contest for precedence between the Cuban resolutions and the Dupont election case, which was finally settled by laying aside the Dupont case while Senator Sherman addressed the senate in support of the Cuban resolutions.

Mr. Sherman discussed at length the character of the resolutions and the conditions existing in Cuba. It was not best to send joint resolutions to the president, as it would compel his action in ten days, and this was not judicious. He had confidence in the president. There were political differences between them but, he added, "no one doubts his courage; no one doubts his fidelity to the flag of our country." Mr. Sherman referred to General Weyler as a butcher and said the conditions in Cuba were flagrant. "If war does not exist in Cuba," he asked, "where outside of hell does it exist." Speaking of the demand for facts, he said that Senator Lodge had obtained from Secretary Olney ample facts to justify the resolutions, but for obvious reasons they could not be made public.

The senate has passed the bill authorizing the Hammond and Blue Island Railroad company to construct a bridge across the Calumet river, in Illinois.

The house committee on territories today decided to recommend the passage of a bill creating a territorial form of government for Alaska, and giving the territory a delegate in congress.

Today's statement of the condition of the treasury shows: Available cash balance, $263 641,681; gold reserve, $125 716,901.

DECISION AFFIRMED.

The Press Publishing Company Stuck in the Sum of $5,000.

NEW YORK, March 12—Judge Lacombe, in the United States circuit court of appeals, has affirmed the judgment of the circuit court for the eastern district of New York, awarding Miss Harriet Monroe, of Chicago $5,000 damages against the Press Publishing company, of this city. The suit was the outgrowth of the premature publication in the New York World, of the ode which Miss Monroe had written for the dedication ceremonies of the World's Columbian exposition in 1893. It was alleged by the complainant in this action that certain errors which appeared in the unauthorized publication of her ode were damaging to her reputation as a writer. Miss Monroe obtained a verdict in the circuit court in December, 1894.

Dr Enslen was also called upon to attend the ten-year old daughter of Mrs. Fredericka Bierbaum, of No. 53 Taylor street. The little girl fell on the sidewalk on the way home from school and broke both bones of the right leg.

AFFAIRS IN CUBA

As Depicted by Colonel Perese, the Insurgent.

Spanish Soldiers Take No Interest in the Government's Cause and Many Desert and Go to the Enemy.

NEW YORK March 12—Col Frederick O Perese, chief of staff of General Maceo, of Cuba, is in this city on a secret mission. He will return to Cuba in a few days. In an interview last night he said: "When I left Cuba, General Gomez and General Maceo were very well satisfied at the conditions existing, and hoped to be able to do something more decisive in the near future. The raid through the central provinces has brought good results. The Cubans gained arms, ammunition and men. Many Spanish volunteers have taken the field with them. In the eastern part of the island over 1 000 Spanish regulars have deserted to the Cubans. Since I left the army there has been a reorganization and some changes. Maceo and Gomez were about to unite their forces again. They now have an army of about 25 000 men in the central provinces. The Cubans have throughout the island about 60 000 armed men, and about 40 000 partially armed. Of the armed men about one-third are cavalrymen, who have plenty of good horses. The Spanish mounted infantrymen are no match for them. Many of the Spaniards are not able to ride and when they charge they cling with both hands to the pommels of their saddles and do not control their horses. Since General Weyler took control the Spaniards have done nothing. They have a great many flying columns in the field but they are always with the rear guard, following along, and never by any chance coming in contact with the vanguard. That is the reason that General Maceo was able to pass from the province of Pinar del Rio to the province of Havana without firing a shot. The Spanish army was marched in the region. I was in the ten years war, and saw the Spaniards fight like demons. Now there is a change. They seem to have no heart for their work. They fight weakly and do not seem to care how the battle may go. The Spaniards appear to be very much demoralized both on account of the movements of Cubans and the action of the American congress. The resolutions passed by the house and senate have given much joy to the Cuban leaders. I had no trouble in getting away from Cuba. In fact there were many facilities. I left the island at a point not far from Havana. The whole interior of the island and the coast with the exception of the few harbors held by the Spaniards are practically under the control of the insurgents. Colonel Perese was wounded January 18 in the battle of Garro, where the Spaniards ambushed the troops of General Maceo and killed four men. Colonel Perese was shot in the neck, and was in the hospital for several weeks. He left the island about a week ago.

SNOW STORMS.

The "Beautiful" Fell to a Depth of Twenty Inches.

NEW YORK, March 12—Snow fell all night in the interior of the state. Dispatches received today by the Associated Press report from eighteen to twenty inches of snow at Saratoga, Amsterdam, Monticello and other points, and considerable interruption to railway traffic in consequence. In this city the storm subsided before midnight, and today the weather is clear but cold.

PITTSBURG, March 12—The worst snow storm that has been experienced in western Pennsylvania for years, swept over Pittsburg yesterday and last night. More snow fell during the twenty-four hours ending this morning than all the days of the winter. The temperature dropped twenty degrees, and another fall of ten to fifteen degrees is expected today. Despite the heavy snow, trains on all lines were generally on time. On the Baltimore and Ohio road, a freight wreck near here last night, tied up the line for nearly eight hours. No one was injured.

TWO FIRES.

Tobacco Warehouse in Pennsylvania—Oil Mill in Mississippi.

LANCASTER, Pa., March 12—The tobacco warehouse occupied by C. Walt Kendig was entirely destroyed by fire this morning together with between 500 and 800 cases of tobacco. There is no insurance of $35 000 on the tobacco which will fully cover the loss. The building was owned by Mrs. J. Gust Cook whose loss is about $4,000. The fire is supposed to have been of incendiary origin.

VICKSBURG, Miss., March 12—The Clarkedale oil mill was burned yesterday morning with an immense quantity of seed. The loss will approximate $100 000 and is only partially insured.

GOES GUNNING.

The President Leaves Washington for a Day's Hunt.

WASHINGTON, March 12—President Cleveland left the city last night at 10:30 on the lighthouse tender Maple for a day's shooting at Widewater, five miles below Quantico, on the Potomac river. He expects to return tonight at 10 o'clock.

QUANTICO, Va., March 12—The lighthouse tender Maple, with President Cleveland aboard, passed here this morning between 2:30 and 3 o'clock. The vessel steamed down in front of the small station on Widewater and dropped anchor. The president is accompanied by Colonel Rives and Commodore Lamberton. Colonel Waller joined them soon after they anchored and the party started for the colonel's blind at daylight. The snow storm has given place to bright, crisp weather and the prospects are very good for ducking.

LOYAL DEMOCRATS.

They Had a Large Meeting Last Night.

Prominent Speakers Delivered Addresses, Urging Harmony and Hard Work During the Campaign.

The hall of Loyal Hall democracy was filled to overflowing last night by the crowd that came to attend the open meeting. If it had been a theater the "standing room only" sign would have been displayed early in the evening.

It had been announced that addresses would be delivered by S. C. Lumbard, H. P. Scherer and W. R. Shambaugh. All these gentlemen were present.

Mr. Lumbard was the first one called upon to speak. He paid his attention to the Oakley administration. Mayor Oakley, he said, started out in his administration with a whoop and a howl for reform. He carried out this policy for a time—long enough to impress a certain element with the idea that he was doing great things. Then he relaxed his vigilance and has allowed things to run in the manner that suited himself best. He has shown favoritism in his appointments and also in the administration of justice to those who have been brought before him. A person who was charged with a trivial offense was made to feel the strength of the law, while in the case of another person who was charged with law-breaking the mayor stuck the affidavit in his pocket because the offender was one of the favored few. The Oakley administration has made it a part of its policy to assess special taxes on everything in sight. First it taxed bicycles and vehicles. Next it assessed a special tax upon the poles of the telegraph, telephone, electric light and street railway companies. Now it wants to place a special taxation upon the natural gas company. All this, in my opinion, is undemocratic. The laws provide for an equal taxation of all property at a fair valuation and I do not think special taxation is just. The democrats should recover control of the city administration and if we nominate a good ticket and all work for it we will win success. I shall support the nominees of our convention, no matter who they may be.

Mr. Lumbard's remarks were heartily applauded.

H. P. Scherer next addressed the crowd. He urged complete organization among all the democrats. We are confronted by conditions which we cannot overcome unless we organize in every ward. Mr. Scherer gave a detailed statement of the manner in which the democrats managed the affairs of the city during the three years previous to the Oakley administration. He told how they built streets, alleys, new engine houses, city hall and other improvements on a levy of $1 10. The Oakley administration, which has collected about $80,000 a year more than did the previous democratic administration, has nothing to show for the money. If democrats will organize and nominate a good ticket and then support that ticket they will again be placed in control of city affairs. It will be my pleasure to work for the ticket which is nominated whether I am chosen for mayor or not.

Prolonged applause greeted Mr. Scherer's address. He was followed by W. H. Shambaugh, who attacked the Oakley administration for its system of city government. He said money had been unnecessarily expended for salaries and cited the comptroller's office to prove it. He said the comptroller, himself, at a salary of $2,000 a year could do all the work of the office, but that he had one clerk all the time and during a portion of the year two clerks. Mr. Shambaugh arraigned the administration in a fearless and convincing manner and his address was frequently punctuated with applause by the crowd.

S. M. Foster was called upon and in his speech he produced figures to prove the assertion that every move that has been made by the Oakley administration has been for the purpose of strengthening it politically. He recounted what he termed willful attempts to mislead the democratic council and the people by juggling figures and making threats of vetoing the tax levy ordinance. Mr. Foster urged the democrats to stand together and support the ticket which will be nominated at the convention, having as their motto, "The party first, the candidates afterward."

TWO MEN LOST

By the Wreck of the Schooner, Kate Scranton.

NEW YORK March 12—The schooner, Kate Scranton, owned and captained by Charles Bates, which went ashore about a mile east of the Eaton Neck life saving station, Long Island, yesterday afternoon, went to pieces during the night. Two of the crew were drowned, Mate Oliver Christeeman, a Norwegian and George Upther, aged fifty, a colored man.

National Committeeman.

CHICAGO, March 12—Ex-Governor Fifer was unanimously elected national committeeman from Illinois by the republican state central committee today in place of W. J. Campbell, deceased.

THE LAST ROUND

In the Fight for Republican National Delegate

From present indications it appears that the republican congressional delegate to the national convention has not yet been settled. The election in this county last Saturday it will be remembered, resulted in the selection of a majority of delegates who are for R. T. McDonald. Yet the Skelton and Law people claim they have enough delegates from this county to make a fair showing for their favorites at the Auburn convention. In addition to this they say that some of the other counties have chosen delegates who are favorable to them and to other candidates who are scattered through the district and that it is by no means certain as yet that McDonald will have a majority in the convention. Both the Skelton and Law factions threaten to carry the war into Africa, or rather into the Auburn convention, and raise a row that will cause somebody's hair to stand on end.

Some of the conservative republicans of this city are counseling the warring elements to quit. They say they should recognize the fact that they were whipped and accept the defeat gracefully, but the other fellows say "nit."

It looks now as though the convention at Auburn on the 19th of this month, at which time the delegate is to be elected, will be a hot one, and that it will be a fight to a finish between the Fort Wayne delegations, who are each for their own man and "to the finish" anyone else.

FOR THE CRANKS.

News and Notes About the National Game.

Fort Wayne Invited to Join a New League—A False Rumor—Last Summer Signed.

Manager William Meyer has received a letter from H. F. Schmidt, manager of the Terre Haute base ball club, accepting the dates and terms for the exhibition games mentioned in THE SENTINEL several days ago. Schmidt also states that a league is being formed with Evansville and Terre Haute, Ind., Springfield, Jacksonville, Decatur Danville and Bloomington, Ill., and he says he "wishes Fort Wayne was in it too." It will be a strong league and all are good ball towns, but Fort Wayne is firmly fixed in the Inter State league and will not change.

A silly rumor was heard on the streets a few days ago that the Inter State league had collapsed. There is no truth in it. The success of the organization is assured. A meeting is to be held soon for the purpose of arranging the schedule of games.

Capt. George Tebeau, of the Fort Wayne team, writes from Denver that he has signed Earl Sumner, a red hot ball player from Braintree, Mass., at a salary of $100 a month. Sumner played with an eastern league team last year.

THE COURTS.

A Bunch of Small Cases on the Dockets.

Term of Justice Hays Ends Tomorrow—End of Long Litigation in the Supreme Court.

The county commissioners have reappointed W. H. Goeborn superintendent of bridges and public buildings.

The term of Charles A. Hays as justice of the peace expires tomorrow. This will leave four justices in the township, instead of five as heretofore.

Henry Wilhelm, who was fined a few days ago by Justice Franco, paid his fine immediately instead of being sent to jail.

The case of Louis Metcalf vs. Mary Walker, suit in replevin, has been appealed from Justice Hays to the circuit court.

The will of the late Mary Brunette has been admitted to probate. The property is left to her sons.

George W. Lemle of Fort Wayne, was admitted to practice in the supreme court yesterday on motion of M. V. B. Spencer.

Henry W. Fry et al vs. one McFeely for possession of real estate. The case will be tried before Justice Hays Saturday morning.

DIED OF HEART FAILURE.

Senator F. E. Ellison has been remarkably successful in several cases in which he was attorney, which have been decided recently in the supreme court of the state at Indianapolis. The cases grew out of a ditch which had been established in Douglas in Jay and Blackford counties. The first case was tried in 1891. The last ten were decided yesterday by the supreme court. During these fifteen years over forty cases that have been stubbornly contested have been carried to the supreme court, and all with one important exception have been decided against the contestants. Every attorney of the Blackford county bar have been engaged on one side or the other. Latterly Judge Byron K Elliott of Indianapolis, and Messrs. Gregory and Templar of Muncie, have been actively assisting the contestants while Mr. F. E. Ellison of this city, has been employed by those in favor of the work. Judge Elliott and Mr. Ellison argued the cases orally before the supreme court about the middle of February. We understand that the supreme court sustained all of Mr. Ellison's contentions and puts the matter forever at rest.

DIED AT RICHMOND.

Word Received of the Death of Mrs. Will Morris.

She Was Formerly Miss Lily Ward, of This City—The Funeral Takes Place Monday Morning.

It is with profound sorrow that THE SENTINEL announces the death of Mrs. William Morris, which occurred at her home in Richmond, Va., at 6 o'clock last evening.

Mrs. Morris was formerly Miss Lily Ward, daughter of Mrs. H. N. Ward, of this city. She was married to Mr. Morris a number of years ago when that gentleman was master mechanic of the Wabash railroad in this city. Later they resided at Grand Rapids, Mich., where Mr. Morris was officially connected with the Chicago and West Michigan railroad, and a few years ago they removed to Richmond, Va., Mr. Morris having been appointed superintendent of motive power on the Chesapeake and Ohio road, with headquarters in that city.

Mrs. Morris visited her parents during the holidays and was at that time in the best of health. Nothing was known of her illness and the first intimation of it came last night when Mr. and Mrs. Ward received a telegram conveying the startling intelligence that she had died.

When she returned home to Richmond from this city after her visit here she was accompanied by her sister, Miss Anna Ward, who was at her bedside at the time of her death.

Mrs. Morris was beloved in a wide circle in this city. She was of a bright, sunny disposition, just such a person as would endear herself to all her friends and acquaintances. The sad news of her demise will be received with a pang of sorrow by all who knew her when she was at home in this city, a winsome and beautiful lady.

The remains will be brought to the home of her parents in this city for interment. They will arrive tomorrow and will be accompanied by the bereaved husband, their four-year-old daughter, Miss Anna Ward and Mr. and Mrs. Stephens. The funeral will be held at the Episcopal church, at 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon.

BURNED OUR FLAG.

Students Further Insult Uncle Sam.

MADRID, March 12—Further demonstrations of student against the United States as a result of the Cuban resolutions of congress, have occurred. At Coruna, 200 students belonging to the university joined in a parade yesterday, cheered for Spain and burned an American flag. The police, however, succeeded in preventing the rioters from approaching the United States consulate. At Alicante, the mayor and police, while dispersing a similar anti-American demonstration, were pelted with stones. A number of policemen sustained injuries.

DR. C. N. METCALF.

Death of the Secretary of the State Board of Health.

INDIANAPOLIS, March 12—Dr. Charles N. Metcalf, for thirteen years secretary of the state board of health, died yesterday morning of pneumonia, at his home, No. 180 North Senate avenue. He was taken ill last Friday and it soon became evident that his condition was serious. Dr. Metcalf has been in poor health for several years and was not prepared physically to withstand the disease which ended his life.

Dr. Metcalf was born in Herkimer county, New York in 1836. He was a Mason, an Odd Fellow and an Elk. The funeral will be held tomorrow afternoon with the burial at Crown Hill. The members of the three societies to which he belonged will attend the services.

Eight out of the eleven congressional district have acted so far and of the sixteen delegates chosen, thirteen are, according to the statement of A. E. Buck chairman of the state executive committee pledged to McKinley, the other three being for Reed. The Fifth, Seventh and Eleventh districts have not acted.

NEXT Tuesday will be St. Patrick's day.

CONVENTION days are coming early this year.

ANOTHER war cloud has disappeared. The Venezuelan question has been amicably settled.

THE Kentucky senatorial fight is proof convincing that United States senators ought to be elected by popular vote.

A CORRESPONDENT of the Northwestern Christian Advocate (Methodist) suggests that Methodist bishops wear robes on public occasions. The masses of the Methodists would say "no" to that.

THE question in Kentucky now is, 'Who will have a majority in the legislature after the two old parties are through firing each other?"

CITY politics claim a good deal of attention just now. With the democrats the interesting question is: "Who will be the candidate for mayor?"

INDIANAPOLIS papers are discussing Sunday base ball. The News of that city, which has the largest circulation of any paper in the state and which stands for the best elements in society, vigorously opposes the violation of the law.

THE Loyal Hall Democracy has grown so rapidly in membership that they will be compelled to move into more commodious quarters. It is a club founded on excellent principles and will be one of the permanent political organizations of the city.

THE great majority of the citizens of Indiana hope that the supreme court of the state will sustain the constitutionality of the Nicholson law in the test cases which they are now hearing. The law is a good one and has done much to eliminate many of the evils resulting from the liquor traffic.

THE suit begun in Marion county to set aside the legislative apportionment act of 1885 reached the supreme court yesterday afternoon. The court will be asked to take up the case at once. There will probably be a motion to advance filed immediately. The attorneys for the republican state committee hope to get a decision in a month or six weeks.

A NEW republican paper is to be issued in Pittsburg. It will make its first appearance next Monday evening, and is to be called "The Pittsburg Daily News." Its projectors say that it is to be printed "in reponse to an admitted demand in Pittsburg for an afternoon paper that is not befouled by sensationalism, but rather one that will be clean, reliable and entertaining"

WITHIN the past four days, says a telegram from St. Louis, friends and supporters of Major McKinley, of Ohio, have secured accommodations for 1500 people there during the republican national convention. The Pennsylvania delegation gave up its contract with the Lindell hotel to care for 300 people and the space was eagerly gobbled up by the Ohioans. Then Iowa gave up accommodations for 300 people and the McKinleyites also secured them. The Marylanders were the third to throw up the sponge, and before the ink on the telegram was cold the Buckeyes had the accommodations. Aside from this, the McKinley forces have made contracts with the Southern hotel for all the space they would give them, and the same thing has been done by them at the Lindell, St. James, Laclede, Planter's, and at every hostlery where any accommodations whatever could be secured.

SOME one has summed up the problems that youth has to face in the expressive remark that every person starting out in life has two great sets of institutions to choose between—the institutions of good and the institutions of evil. If this be true it is also true that the category of good institutions contain none that deserve to rank higher than the Christian Endeavor societies, the Epworth leagues and the Baptist unions. Those who are not acquainted with the workings of these societies have but little idea of their true nature or the beneficent office they fill in society. Their greatest value consists in the associations that they throw around the young. "A human being follows his associates" is an old aphorism, and in the case of the young people's societies this is illustrated by the fact that perhaps nine-tenths of the persons who enter their portals are led by association into the broader realm of the church, becoming useful members of society and builders of character. Fort Wayne has her full quota of these church societies and there is no city in the country where the members are more active or more devoted to their cause. The work which they do is done in a quiet way. It is in deeds of mercy and help, in the spiritual elevation of souls and the building up of religion, and it is having its influence for good in our city.

Napoleon Bonaparte, one of the most forceful men in all history, a man continually wrapped in schemes and campaigns, in plots and counter-plots, striving intently and ambitiously for success and power—a man whose utter disregard for human life made his battles the bloodiest the world has ever seen—this man found bitterness in his triumphs because he had no heir to whom to bequeath his greatness. Josephine was divorced largely for this reason. Many women are incapable of bearing children. Many more of them are afflicted with disorders of the organs directly feminine so that bearing children would be dangerous to them, and unfair to the children. Every child deserves the heritage of health. The children cannot receive this from a sickly mother. There is no reason why they should have such a thing as "female weakness." It is as unnecessary as it is distressing. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription cures all forms of distinctly feminine sickness. It purifies, strengthens and invigorates. It is prepared for just this one purpose and no other. It's the only medicine now before the public for woman's peculiar ailments, adapted to her delicate organization by a regularly graduated physician, an experienced and skilled specialist in these maladies. It cannot do harm in any condition of the system. Its sales exceed the combined sales of all other medicines for women.

THE spiritual elevation of souls and the building up of religion, and it is having its influence for good in our city.

The World's Final War.

There is the possibility of a tremendous war in Europe. It has been predicted for half a century by those who recognized the tension of the relation between the nations there, and what is looked for a long time generally comes to hand at last. It is possible that the United States would be involved in such a war if it came, though all Americans must hope we should not be.

At any rate, if it should come this much is tolerably certain—it would be the last great war in which the nations of the earth as represented by the civilization of today would be involved. It has been many a year since Great Britain had a very important war all on her own account. The last great fight in which the British flag was carried—carried, too, to victory—was the battle of Waterloo. Where the next great fight will be it is possible the year 1896 will develop.

The reason that there can never be more than one more great war as society is now organized is that the implements of fighting have reached such deadly effectiveness and precision that arbitration must perforce be resorted to unless the nations desire mutually to wipe one another off the face of the globe. Dynamite has never yet been used in a great war. It will be in the next one. The storming of a fort, which has heretofore constituted so picturesque and effective a part of warfare, can never be possible in the old way. Hereafter a part of the defenses of a fort will be torpedoes set round about underground. If a storming party approaches, a little child may press the button that will send them one and all to eternity. Or if, on the other hand, it is the force inside the fort that has the fortune to be blown up, the mines will be laid secretly underneath the fort, and a button pressed many miles away will send the fort and its inmates to destruction. Ships may be and will be blown up in the same way, no matter how thick their armor. The armor cannot be made that will withstand the power of dynamite.

In the small arm service of the modern fighting hosts the rapid firing rifle has attained such deadly proficiency, in connection with the smokeless powder now in use, that it is a hundred times as effective as the old rifle was. The glory and romance of battle belong to the past. Wholesale destruction of life by sea and land will be the inevitable result of a great war.

There are no more opportunities for picturesque daring and deeds of personal valor by which a hero makes his name immortal. Marching out to battle will simply mean standing up to be shot, with the chances two to one in favor of being shot to death. The personal valor of the future must be exhibited on the moral battlefield.

The inevitable result of settling their differences by fighting them out will be such wholesale destruction of life by sea and land that the nations will never dare again to invoke the red demon of war. Yes; there may be one more great war in the history of the present world cycle. There will never be more than one. It will be followed by universal disarmament.

Psycho-therapeutics.

That is what in the Illinois Medical college at Chicago they call the science and art of healing a patient by hypnotic suggestion. The college in question has been the first in our country to establish a regular department, with attendant professorship, in this branch of medical lore.

The method adopted is to put the patient into the hypnotic state. In this, while his ordinary consciousness is dormant, his subconsciousness is very much awake and is taking in everything. In the hypnotic condition the patient is talked to energetically. A vivid impression is made on his mind that when he "wakes," as it must be called for want of a better term, the cause of his trouble will have disappeared, and he will be ailing no more. This treatment, repeated sometimes daily, sometimes two or three times a week, will, it is claimed, often effect a cure. Such is the method taken by the French professors at Nancy and at Paris.

The doctors at the Illinois Medical college believe that if French physicians can cure by hypnotic suggestion, Americans can do the same, as they undoubtedly can.

The Chicago professors will hold clinics for the treatment of patients. They expect to be especially successful in all diseases of a nervous type, notably stammering and the habit of drunkenness. The drunkard will be hypnotized from time to time, and assured each time that he will thereafter loathe the very smell of alcohol. The professors are sure also that they can cure rheumatism.

It has been said over and again that if a suicide would put off his intention of self murder for 24 hours something would happen that would save him every time. A curious illustration of this has been furnished in Chicago. A German carpenter had been out of work since Christmas. He had a wife and three children and a father and mother dependent on him. Maddened by the prospect of starvation for these loved ones, he first chloroformed them till they were unconscious and shot them dead one after another. Then he shot himself. Two kindly neighbors called next morning at his rooms to tell him they had found work for him. They noticed the odor of chloroform on entering the place. They looked through the rooms and found the seven bodies stretched cold in death.

If Salisbury wants to have the good will and sympathy of a majority of the American people when presently he gets all Europe on his back, let him now agree to conclude with the United States a treaty under which all questions between the two English speaking governments shall be submitted henceforth to peaceful arbitration. He need not say a word about Venezuela, but can just let that matter come under the treaty regulations in due time along with the Bering sea affair, the Alaska boundary and other matters.

The sale of nine Leadville mines to an English syndicate recently does not look as though there was much fear of war between the two English speaking countries.

THE NICHOLSON LAW.

Its Constitutionality Discussed in the Supreme Court.

Judge Zollars, of This City, Makes an Argument Against the Law for the Liquor Men.

INDIANAPOLIS, March 11 —The supreme court yesterday heard oral argument as to the constitutionality of the Nicholson temperance law, passed by the last legislature. The importance of the case and the prominence of the attorneys employed brought to the court room one of the largest audiences that has ever assembled there.

The law, since it went into force a little less than a year ago, has been attacked in the circuit courts in many of the counties. Some twelve or fifteen cases have found their way to the supreme court. In order that the whole law might be passed upon by the court in a single decision it was agreed by the attorneys for the liquor men that cases raising all the questions involved in all the suits begun in the lower courts should be bunched or consolidated in the supreme court. As the result of this agreement, ten cases were consolidated.

The attorneys employed by those who wish to see the law broken down are Elliott & Elliott and Baker & Daniels, of this city; Allan Zollars, of Fort Wayne; Lamb & Beasley and ex-Judge Hammill, of Terre Haute, and the Stuart Bros., of Lafayette. For the state, Attorney General Ketcham, Charles W. Smith, Frederick E. Matson and Ritter & Baker, all of this city, appear.

Judge Hammill made the first argument against the law, Judge Elliott followed and then Judge Zollars spoke in opposition to the law

Judge Zollars confined his argument largely to attacking the faulty title of the Nicholson law, and to show that the title did not fill constitutional requirements. He contended that section 9 of the act really conferred upon voters of a ward or township a power as effectual as prohibition, without requiring a vote, but merely signing of a remonstrance, and that an applicant can thus be defeated and prevented from obtaining a license without any reasons being given. He held that the very word remonstrance indicated that there must be reasons, and that was the only sort of remonstrance known to the state of Indiana. The remonstrance which takes away from the board the right to hear and the power to grant a license he held to be wrong No man reading the title of the act would expect to find such a remonstrance in the body of the act and such a title is a fraud and a deceit. The section comprises the suspension of a general law and overthrows every one of those provisions of the law of 1875. If the ninth section is upheld, the majority in some wards and townships may defeat all license and this establishes prohibition. It gives the power to suspend the general law by means of such remonstrances. The law of the state is suspended by the filing of the remonstrance which takes from the board the power to act. The applicant is cut off from a hearing, and this is prohibition.

The assaults upon the law were made on the ground that the local option feature is unconstional; that the law is not complete in itself, but dependent upon the other liquor laws of the state; is not a constitutional amendment, and that the title of the law is defective in not complying with the constitutional provisions.

The argument was purely technical and consisted in citing decisions of the courts of other states on the questions involved.

The defense referred to the conditions that had brought the legislature to the enactment of the law; to the intent of the legislature as expressed in the act, and to the fact that it was a restrictive measure only, where a majority of the people wanted the traffic restricted, thus framed to meet the wishes of all classes and eminently liberal in its scope.

In closing the attorney general declared that even local prohibition is not in violation of the constitution.

Three prosperous farmers in the vicinity of Goodview, near Farmland, who were recently converted, united in building a church which they presented to the M E conference.

A RELIC OF THE PAST.

NO LONGER NECESSARY.

A Medical Discovery Which Will Change the Treatment of All Such Diseases.

It has long been thought not only by some physicians but by the people in general that the common, painful and exceedingly annoying trouble, piles, was practically incurable by any other means than a surgical operation, and this belief has been the cause of years of needless suffering, because of the natural dread of surgical operations.

There are many salves, ointments and similar remedies on the market which afford some relief in cases of piles, but the Pyramid Pile Cure is the only preparation so far introduced that can be reliably depended upon to cure to stay cured, every form of itching, bleeding or protruding piles.

Mrs. M C. Hinkley of 601 Mississippi St., Indianapolis, was told by her physicians that nothing but a surgical operation costing between seven and eight hundred dollars could cure her as she had suffered for 15 years; yet even in such a case as hers the Pyramid Pile Cure accomplished a complete cure. She says: "I knew an operation would be death to me and tried the Pyramid with very little hope and it is not to be wondered at that I am so enthusiastic in its praise."

Major Dean of Columbus, Ohio, says he suffered for 40 years from piles and 30 years from itching piles and in his case two packages of the Pyramid cured him.

Mr D. E. Reed of South Lyons, Mich., says I would not take $500 and be placed back where I was before I used the Pyramid Pile Cure. I suffered for years and it is now eighteen months since I used it and not the slightest trace of the trouble has returned.

The Pyramid Pile Cure is sold by nearly all druggists at 50 cents and $1 per package and as it contains no opium, cocaine or other poisonous drug can be used with perfect safety.

No one need suffer from piles in any form who will give this excellent remedy a trial. Made by the Pyramid Co., Albion, Mich. Any druggist can get it for you.

Show to Weak, Tired and Debilitated People

How Health and Strength Can be Easily Obtained.

There are no words so strong as these spoken by the true minister of the Gospel. One knows and feels, instinctively, that such words come from the heart, and are uttered only with the earnest purpose of doing good to humanity.

The boundless influence for good for those who are weak, nervous, debilitated and run down in health, of the strong and powerful words of these well known clergymen is an assurance of cure for sufferers. These great preachers thus proclaim a new Gospel of Health to the sick and discouraged, which means renewed health, hope, happiness Their good tidings are doubly welcome at this season, for in the spring almost everybody is run down or ailing and needs just such information in regard to what to do.

Rev. F. H. Buffum, of Winchester, N. H, who is Grand Army Chaplain for the state of New Hampshire, says:

"The remedial effect of Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy on the weaknesses and nervous prostration of my wife, was so positive and speedy that we can heartily testify to its undoubted merits."

Rev. G. L. Wells, of Hardwick, Vt, writes:

"I have used Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy with most excellent results. It did great good for

Rev. C. D. R. Meacham, pastor, Baptist Church, Townshend, Vt., states: "I am very glad to say in regard to Dr. Greene's great remedy that when my blood was badly impaired, Dr. Greene's medicine gave me wonderful relief. At the present time my health is as good as at any time in my life, and my confidence in Dr. Greene's remedy is constantly increasing."

Rev. Henry Langford, of Weston, W. Va., says: "I became so nervous I was unable to hold my head steady in the pulpit, nor could I hold or handle my books and papers without great trembling and weakness of my hands and arms. I was so nervous that I could scarcely feed myself. In fact, my nervous system was wrecked.

"I took Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy, and am wonderfully improved in health and strength. Dr. Greene's Nervura did it. I can heartily and truthfully recommend it to the sick. Too much cannot be said in praise of this splendid medicine. I say this for the good of other sufferers from nervous and prostrating diseases who can be cured by this remedy."

Clergymen strongly recommend the people to use Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy because they know it cures, and because it is a physician's prescription, the discovery of the most successful specialist in curing nervous and chronic diseases, Dr. Greene, of 35 West 14th St., New York City, who can be consulted free, personally or by letter.

RECORDS BROKEN

In the Bicycle Tournament at San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 12—Two world's records were broken at the indoor bicycle tournament last night. Egan and Jaegling on a tandem rode a half mile in 1:00 3 5, and Metcalf, paced by the same team, rode the distance in 1:01. The final of the ten mile club race was contested by Wells, of the Bay City Wheelmen; Squires, of the Acme club; Leavitt, of the San Francisco Road club, and Birdsall, of the California club. Each man took his turn at setting the pace, until the seventy-sixth lap, when Wells resumed the lead and commenced his famous long sprint, with Squires working like a demon to take the yole from him, but his efforts were unsuccessful, Wells pushing his wheel over the lap a comparatively easy winner. Time, 25:28 2 5. The final of the quarter mile race was won by Edwards, he defeating Tantau easily. Time, 0:35 4 5. Delmas won the mile handicap from the fifty yard mark, Cook second, eighty yards. Time, 2:27 2 5.

The solid through trains of the Nickel Plate road, equipped with all modern appliances for safety, speed and comfort, are a prominent feature of that popular line. Their fast eastern express leaving Chicago at 1:30 p. m. daily, runs through solid to New York city, arriving at that point at 6:30 p. m the next evening. Experience is the best teacher. After you exnerience a trip on this train, we are confident of your future patronage. s,w,tb&wtc31

A COLONY OF DUNKARDS.

Three Hundred Will Soon Start for New Homes in Dakota.

LOGANSPORT, Ind., March 12—A. B. Peters, of Condo, N. D, is visiting Mexico, Flora Denver and other points in Cass and Miami counties, which are settled by the religious sect styled Dunkards, or Brethren. Mr. Peters is an exceptionally intelligent member of this queer sect, and is working in the interests of the church in organizing a colony of people to accompany him to Condo, which place is settled entirely by Dunkards. A large number of people have already arranged to go, and are disposing of their property preparatory to starting on the 24th of March. On that date Mr. Peters expects to leave Chicago at the head of three hundred emigrants from the Dunkard settlements in this part of the state Among the inducements offered are government lands, fine climate, excellent timber land, certainty of crops and a home where they can practice the religious beliefs of their church undisturbed by other denominations.

They indulge in many queer practices in their interpretation of the scriptures, and have an instinctive horror of worldly frivolities. Owing to the surroundings of the settlements in Indiana, however, it has proven a difficult matter to train their children according to the church doctrines, and a split in the church resulted, one branch being known as the Progressive Dunkards and the other as the Old Order. A large number have, therefore, embraced the opportunity to join the colony for the purpose of living in an atmosphere where their children will not be surrounded by worldly influences.

Cured of Gallstones.

May 27th, 1895.

The Dr. J. H. McLean Medicine Co.,
ST. LOUIS, MO.

GENTLEMEN: For upwards of ten years I suffered from what the doctors called neuralgia of the stomach, but they could do nothing for me. At one time I was taken with a most excruciating pain and in my agony I prayed for death to relieve me. My husband sent to Lincoln for another doctor, who came, and after examination, pronounced my trouble to be gallstones. The only relief I received was when the doctors injected morphine, and that was only temporary. I was reading in your almanac where

Cured a case of gallstones. My husband thought I had better try it, so he bought a bottle. That bottle gave me so much relief I was encouraged to keep on with it. I used seven bottles, and am now, thanks to its great healing power, cured sound and well. I am unable to express my gratitude to you for the benefit I have received from your wonderful medicine. I have recommended it to many people since my recovery, and shall always do so when I have the opportunity. You may make use of this letter in any way you desire.

Yours respectfully,
MRS. LIZZIE SAXTON,

AFFAIRS OF THE RAIL.

The Promotors of the Belt Railway Strike an Obsticle.

The News of the Rail and Shop as Revealed by the Reporter's Note Book.

Recent surveys are not very encouraging to the promoters of the belt line railway in the east end. Three lines have been run and neither is thought to be practicable on account of the grade, which is estimated at seventy foot to the mile. However, the promoters have not given up the project and will no doubt hit upon a route which will be practicable and result in the construction of the road. Such a line would be of inestimable value to the railways centering here, as well as to the property interests in the east end.

MAY BUILD A TROLLEY LINE.

Indianapolis Journal: "The project of building an electric trolley line from Terre Haute to Indianapolis is being investigated. The projectors wish to build it in the interest of the Vandalia and hope to interest the Pennsylvania company in its construction. It is well known that when the Terre Haute and Indianapolis was built a right of way 100 feet in width was secured, and the projectors of the electric road propose to utilize a portion of this right of way for such a line. The grading the entire distance would be very light, would not interfere with the steam road and could be constructed at a very light cost. The scheme of the projectors is for the electric line to do the local passenger business and admit of the passenger trains of the Vandalia running through with but two or three stops The matter is being agitated, it is stated, seriously, but whether it will materialize is still in doubt.

The Christian work committee of the City Y. M. C. A. has received a letter from Medical Evangelist C. A. Dorman in which he says he will give them a month's service, beginning Sunday, March 29. Dr. Dorman is the same man who last winter addressed the men's meetings at the association hall and drew large crowds. A silver collection will be taken up at the door to defray the expenses.

The score in the Y. M. C. A. membership contest this morning stood thus: Hadley, 100 points; Bradley, 60; Jenne, 40; Cragg, 16; Wilson, 13, Brackenridge and Tolan, each 12; Baxter, 9; Webster, 8; Reitzs, 7. The scores will not be announced after next Saturday evening, although the contest will not close until March 21. Thus far the contest has resulted in the addition of 140 new members to the association rolls, making the total membership at present nearly 600, the largest in the history of the association.

The funeral of Samuel A. Farrell, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. James Farrell, occurred at Sheldon on Wednesday from the M E church the sermon being conducted by Rev. Bloyd. The interment was at Union-town cemetery. The child was one year and six months old, and his death as already mentioned in THE SENTINEL, was the result of an accident. During the absence of the mother from the house for a short time, the child got too near to the stove and his clothes caught fire. His arms and side were burned to a crisp and after lingering for two days, he died on Monday, March 9. The parents have the sympathy of a large circle of friends in their bereavement.

$100 Reward, $100.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of Testimonials.

CORBETT SIGNS THE ARTICLES

Leaves the Date in June Open to Suit Fitzsimmons' Pleasure.

PITTSBURG, March 12—The original articles of agreement for a fight between James J. Corbett and Robert Fitzsimmons, forwarded by the National Sporting club, of London, were received here last evening for Corbett's signature. Corbett read the agreement carefully and attached his signature without hesitancy. He agrees to every condition stipulated and fills in the blank regarding division of the purse with the words "winner to take all" He leaves the date in June, 1896, open for the club and Fitzsimmons to settle upon. To be original Corbett has added the following clauses:

"Marquis of Queensberry rules to govern the contest; each principal to be allowed the privilege of having gloves made to fit his hands; each principal to be notified two weeks before said contest of the exact number of rounds they are to participate in."

Principals request that the Associated Press of America be allowed to have their wires in said club for reporting said contest to America.

EX-COMMANDER BOOTH

Will Not Go to England to See His Father.

NEW YORK March 12—Ex Commander Booth has not yet answered the cablegram he received from his father, asking him to go to England and see the general. When asked if he would go to the other side, the commander said: "I will not go. In a few days I will make a statement, in which I will make known the name of the new organization which I have started." A prominent Salvationist said last night the refusal of Mr. Booth to go to England by invitation of his father might cause the general to come to this country in a very short time.

The Twelfth District.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 12—Congressman Leighty has decided not to attend the republican congressional convention in the Twelfth Indiana district, which has been called for the 19th inst. Mr. Leighty's name will go before the convention. The name of Harry Hanna, of Fort Wayne, has been mentioned as a candidate.

"I can not say whether I will have any opposition or not," said Mr. Leighty. "Mr. Hanna's name has been mentioned in the newspapers, but some time ago I had a letter from him assuring me that he would not be a candidate, and friends have written me in the last few days saying that I would have no opposition. Circumstances may have altered the decision of Mr. Hanna."

DIDN'T LOOK FOR IT.

Words From a Stranger Smoothed the Way.

An elderly gentleman of fine presence sat in the business office of one of the largest grocery stores in an eastern city engaged in social converse with one of the proprietors. They were old friends and tried, and were renewing the old friendship. A salesman came into the office and presented his business to the grocer, handing him a card showing a table set with viands, while the words "Postum Cereal" and two red disks appeared underneath. In a few words the salesman stated that his firm was desirous of having the grocer handle 'Postum" in a large way. The friend and visitor suddenly spoke up and said, "Will, if you never sold that you have missed a good thing. We use it at home, and I have drank it for four months past in place of coffee because coffee disagreed with me. People in my town use the food drink quite universally, and you can depend on my word that it is pure, nourishing and healthful. It is made wholly of grains, and while it looks and tastes like coffee it has none of the harmful effects of coffee."

One can easily imagine that the good words helped the salesman in his introduction, and impressed him with the value of a good name and reputation.

The above occurance happened exactly as given.

Dallas F. Green, proprietor of the Arcade jewelry store, is in possession of a rare treasure in the shape of a pink pearl which was found in the Maumee river near this city, last summer. There have been a number of pearls found in Maumee river mussels, but this is the most valuable one yet discovered. The pearl weighs five grains and is a gem in transparency, pick in color, without a flaw and larger than a pea. The value placed on it by experts is $125. The color is rare and greatly increases the value of the gem.

OFFICE OF SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC SCHOOLS
FORT WAYNE Ind., March 9 1896.

E. P. Banning, M. D., Aveline Hotel.

MY DEAR DOCTOR:—It gives me great pleasure to say from its use in my own family, that I have a high estimate of the Banning System of Mechanical Support, and cheerfully recommend its use in cases for which it is intended.

Very truly yours,
JNO. S. IRWIN, M. D.

The system of support to which Dr. Irwin refers won the highest and only award at Chicago, and has been adopted by the United States government as "infinitely superior to others." Over ten thousand physicians pronounce it "the only reasonable method of treating, for a radical cure, rupture, spinal disease and deformities. Dr. Banning is introducing the system in this state and will examine cases at the Aveline hotel for a brief period. The Banning method radically cures ninety-eight per cent. of rupture without pain, operation or detention from business, and all cases of lateral curvature of the spine where there has been no osseous change.

CONSTABULARY RULE

Established in Kentucky's Capital Today.

Quiet Reigns During the Early Hours, But the Situation Is Considered Ominous.

FRANKFORT, Ky., March 12.—The capital is under constabulary rule this morning. Mayor Julian ordered about twenty extra policemen to remain on duty in the rotunda of the capitol. They are under command of Chief Tobin, with instructions to keep the rotunda absolutely clear. This course was decided on by the mayor, after a consultation with the governor, who said to the mayor that if Frankfort was unable to afford police protection to members of the legislature he intended to do so if it took every state guard in Kentucky. At this hour, 10:30 o'clock, everything is quiet and there are no indications of a clash.

Shortly after the house opened Representative Kauffman walked down the aisle and began to gather up his papers about his desk. Mr Dunlap was not present when work was begun. Senators James and Walton were in the house chamber ready to be on hand when the joint session begins. Representative Speed, republican, sent up a resolution providing that,

WHEREAS, The authorities of Frankfort and Franklin county have failed to suppress lawlessness and mob violence has been attempted to obstruct legislation. Therefore, be it

Resolved, That it is the sense of this body that the capitol should be moved to a place where order and protection will be guaranteed.

The speaker ruled the resolution out of order.

As soon as the democratic leaders found that the two members of the senate, James and Walton, had secured admission to the house chamber, they raised a protest. Mayor Julian, who was on hand with extra policemen, was found and asked to see that the men were removed peaceably from the door of the house before the joint assembly convened, in order that all trouble might be prevented. The mayor refused to do so, and said that it was within the power of the house, if it chose to do so, to eject the two men. Senator Bronston argued for some time with the mayor, but without effect. The situation is very critical, because the democrats declare that if an attempt is made by the two ex members to vote, it will surely precipitate trouble.

The republican leaders assert that both James and Walton have a right to the floor of the house, and some of the republicans were not slow to say that they will vote in joint assembly for United States senator. Adjutant General Collier said just now that the only difference between the unseating of Kaufman in the house and the declaring vacant of the seats of James and Walton in the senate was that Kaufman was legally unseated while James and Walton were not. It is expected that the adjutant general will take a hand in the case if trouble breaks out. The corridors are filled with an even more desperate set of men today than was present yesterday and if trouble does break out the consequences can not but be terrible. The men in the corridors are now guarding the door of the house chamber, however, while those outside gaze with longing eyes at the glass doors. Walton and James are sitting side by side in the left hand corner of the chamber, where it will be exceedingly hard to get at them in case of an attempt at expulsion.

The special police just before noon ordered all persons in the upper corridors to go below, and a dense mass of men are now gathered in the lower corridors of the capitol. A few are still left in the cloak rooms of the house and senate, and these are now being slowly forced out and down the stairway. Among those in the senate cloak room are Chinn, Lillard, Williams, Thompson, Roach, Blackburn, and a number of special policemen. No attempt has been made to clear the senate lobby of the crowd now in it.

When the senate filed into the house chamber to ballot for United States senator, Mr. Dunlap had not arrived upon the floor or qualified. When this fact became known it served to cool to a great degree the excitement. It was evident that the endeavor of the republicans to elect a senator today would fail unless, of course, the vote of Populist Poor had been secured.

Half a dozen ladies were in the right hand lobby of the house chamber, in spite of the exciting times of yesterday. They included Miss Laura Clay, Mrs. J. K. Henry and mother of Versailles.

Senator Bronston asked that the journal of each house of yesterday be read. An objection was made to the reading and the chair sustained the objection, and said that he had understood that only the journal of the joint assembly was to be read. Bronston made the point that the journal of the joint assembly must include the journals of each house. He again made the same argument as on yesterday that there was no separate journal kept of the joint assembly and that it was, therefore, necessary to have separate journals of each house read in accordance to the law and not that he wished to delay the taking of the ballot.

Mr Landes said that the joint assembly had no jurisdiction to change or correct anything that occurred in either house on yesterday and that Bronston had no right to make a request to have anything read save the journal of the joint assembly. He also asked the chair to declare the gentleman out of order. Mr. Blanford said that the joint assembly had no right to approve or correct any part of the journal of the house or senate of yesterday and therefore neither should be read. Bronston said: "The time has come when we must understand each other. The journals of the house and senate of yesterday are but a part of the journal of the joint assembly."

The chair decided that the joint assembly was a separate assembly, distinct from each house, and that the members were only entitled to have read proceedings of the joint assembly.

After more wrangling, Saltzer, democrat, moved that the reading of the Journal of the joint assembly be dispensed with. Agreed to.

Before the call of the roll on the ballot was begun Senator Bronston stated that he understood that there was stationed in the corridor a platoon of police, he supposed for the purpose of preserving peace and good order. He continued, "I ask why certain persons now on the floor of this house are here. I ask that first as a request and second as a motion that every one be excluded from the floor of this house save members of the joint assembly, officers, and the press."

Mr. Barnett made the point that the motion was out of order. The chair said he thought the motion was out of order, but he would put it to the assembly anyway. The republicans refused to vote with the intention of breaking a quorum. Edrington voted with the democrats for the motion, as did Poor also. The chair announced that no quorum had voted, and the motion was lost.

The presiding officer announced that he was still of the opinion that seventy members constituted a quorum and would so rule, and that in all ballots for senator seventy members must be voting to insure election.

The chair ordered the call of the roll, which showed 130 members present. There were only two pairs. The ballot resulted:

Blackburn, 51.
Carlisle, 12.
Buckner, 1.

The republicans and Populist Poor refused to vote and the chair declared that no election had been had. Upon motion the assembly adjourned until tomorrow.

The democrats are much pleased with the ruling of Lieutenant Governor Worthington in today's joint assembly, and say if seventy votes are required for a quorum, as stated by him, that there will be no election this session Republican leaders still declare that a majority of those present is a quorum. Both sides seem delighted that there was no trouble of any kind.

STILL ARGUING.

Reported Settlement of the Boundary Dispute Premature.

A Peaceful Ending of the Dispute is Anticipated, Though It May Come Months Later.

WASHINGTON, March 12.—It can be stated positively, notwithstanding publications to the contrary, that no settlement has yet been reached of the Venezuelan boundary question, but according to the best authority matters are proceeding in such fashion as to warrant the belief that there will be a satisfactory outcome. It is admitted that at present it cannot be told whether the ultimate settlement of this question will be affected as the result of direct negotiations between Great Britain and Venezuela, initiated through the medium of some mutually friendly power, or as the conclusion of the work of our own Venezuelan boundary commission, but in one way or another a peaceful and honorable settlement of the dispute is believed to be firmly probable in the end, though this end still may be far removed in point of time. If negotiations directly between Venezuela and Great Britain have been resumed at Caracas, the fact is not known to the officials here, who should be advised for their own guidance, and as the Venezuelan commission is proceeding diligently to the discharge of its duties of weighing all of the evidence obtainable respecting the actual location of the boundary line, and in this has been assured of the co-operation of both the parties to the dispute, the public expectation appears to turn in that direction. Owing to the limited number of advance copies of the British Blue book containing the British case which have been received so far, the commission has been obliged to struggle along with one single copy, which is of course inadequate for the simultaneous study of all the members, but it is expected that within a day or two the mails will bring a sufficient supply of the documents from London to facilitate the progress of the work. Meanwhile, so far as the document has been examined, it can be stated that it is not regarded as bearing out the promise of invulnerability claimed for it in London. In fact it is in many points regarded as open to impeachment as to actual historical events recited.

Farmers Get Cheap Whiskey.

GREENCASTLE, Ind., March 12.—Agents have been peddling whiskey over this county for the past two days. They traveled on horseback and carried from two to four one gallon jugs in a sack, which was slung across the horse's back. Several farmers in different parts bought the booze, paying from fifty to seventy-five cents per gallon. It is not known how or where the agents got their supply. They did not carry

SETTLEMENT REACHED.

Satisfactory Conclusion of the Venezuelan Question.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 12.—A settlement of the Venezuelan question has been reached. It will be announced at an early day. Of this satisfactory conclusion of the controversy the president has had knowledge for two days past. Great Britain has acted with a magnanimity which commends her to the severest critics. She concedes so much that there will be little left to arbitrate should arbitration be necessary. It is not improbable that the entire matter may now be settled outside the Venezuelan commission by the president and Lord Salisbury. Under the terms, so far as outlined, Great Britain agrees to submit all of the questions in dispute to amicable adjustment, with the president, through the state department, as one of the contracting parties. That Venezuela would agree to almost anything suggested by the United States has been known all along. It is surmised that the attitude of some of the influential London papers in pointing out alleged defects in the British blue book may have had something to do with the change of attitude by Queen Victoria's ministers. The president was in very high spirits last night over the favorable turn in the controversy between the two nations.

LONDON, March 12.—The permanent under secretary of state for foreign affairs, Sir Thomas Henry Sanderson, was asked today if the report, cabled here from the United States, that a settlement of the Venezuelan question has been reached, was correct. He said that he would be glad to know that the Venezuelan dispute was settled. "But," he added, "I know nothing about such a settlement as the one reported in New York having been reached. For all I know, however, a settlement may be near; but I have not heard of its attainment."

FOREIGN BULLETINS.

The Army of the Negus Reaches Entisico.

Italians Fleeing From Italy to Escape Military Service—Union Secures a Loan.

ROME, March 12.—The latest advices from Massowah are that the army of the Negus has reached Entisico, half way between Adowa and Adigrat. The forces of Osman Digna have arrived at Gulusat.

PARIS, March 12.—The railroad trains crossing the frontier from Italy are crowded with Italians who are leaving that country to escape military service in Africa.

The Eclair today, commenting on the Cuban resolutions of congress, says that in view of the "exaggerated pretentions," of the United States, it is "difficult to see why European diplomats cannot, at least, extend their good offices to Spain."

PEKIN, March 12.—The Anglo-German loan of 100,000,000 taels has been issued at 94, with interest at 5 per cent. The contract stipulates that the customs administration is to remain unchanged.

CONSTANTINOPLE, March 12.—Two of the assistants of Miss Clara Barton, president of the American Red Cross society, have received permits to proceed to Alexandria. Miss Barton will remain here for the present.

STRANGE PHENOMENON

Noticed in Various Parts of Nebraska.

OMAHA, Neb., March 12.—A strange phenomenon has been noticed in various parts of Nebraska. Water stands higher in wells and is found in larger volume in streams than for several years at this season. There has been very little rain in Nebraska during the past fall and winter, yet streams which were dry last year are filling with water from unknown sources and wells show more water than usual. The weather bureau has begun an investigation and the railroads are assisting.

DUESTROW SENTENCED.

Will Be Hanged for the Murder of His Wife and Baby.

UNION, Mo., March 12.—Dr. Arthur Duestrow, the so-called millionaire murderer of St. Louis, who was convicted in the circuit court here a short time ago of killing his wife and baby in St. Louis, was brought before Judge Hirzel today and sentenced to be hanged April 22. Duestrow will be sent back to the St. Louis jail for safe keeping.

Raines Excise Bill.

ALBANY, N. Y., March 12.—Voting on the Raines excise bill, which passed the senate on Tuesday, will begin in the assembly at 5 o'clock this afternoon. First will come eight amendments which have been proposed, and then there will be a motion to strike out the enacting clause, so that the final vote can scarcely be reached before 6 o'clock. Some opponents of the measure profess a belief that the bill will fail of passage in the assembly.

Noted Against Woman.

LONDON, March 12.—The senate of Cambridge university, by a vote of 154 to 171, has rejected the proposition to appoint a committee to consider the question of conferring degrees upon women.

Firm Reorganized.

NEW YORK, March 12.—The old mercantile firm of J. W. Brewster & Co., which failed last October, has been reorganized under the title of J. W. Brewster & Co., reorganized. James B. Brewster is the president of the new corporation, which starts with a capital of $50,000.

AFFAIRS OF STATE.

Cuban Resolutions Come in for a Share of Attention.

WASHINGTON, March 12.—There is no abatement of public interest in the Cuban debate in the senate, as is evidenced by the large crowds which continue to fill the galleries to their full capacity. A number of the ladies of the diplomatic corps, who were in the diplomatic gallery, and some of them occupied front seats, were supplied with opera glasses, with which they surveyed the senators. Mr. Sherman gave notice that he would endeavor to secure a vote on the Cuban report at the earliest possible moment. After an hour was consumed in clearing away routine matters the Cuban resolutions were laid before the senate and Mr. Hill, of New York, was recognized. He was given marked attention and in opening said he would vote against the conference report and would confine his remarks mainly to an explanation of his reasons therefor.

He pointed out that this bring a conference report, the resolution could not be amended. He would, therefore, vote against the report in order that at a subsequent time amendments might be made. The senator particularly objected to the third clause of the resolutions, stating that "the United States has not intervened in the struggles between any European governments and their colonies, but that owing to the proximity of Cuba, the United States should be prepared to intervene." This he declared to be ambiguous and unmeaning. We had intervened in such controversies. We had intervened and recognized the countries which had been colonies of Spain. What the resolution sought to convey was a threat to intervene. To this extent the resolution was unnecessary. It is subject to doubtful construction and a mischief breeder. It was liable to compromise us. The phrase that the "United States should be prepared to protect the legitimate interests of our citizens by intervention," sounded like a threat, or it was buncom. "If this resolution means that we should increase our army let us say so frankly and frame a bill for that purpose," said Mr. Hill. "If it means we should increase our navy let us state it frankly and fearlessly and frame a bill to that end. Let us not indulge in idle boasts and threats and doubtful phrases as to our being prepared to protect legitimate interests by intervention."

At 2 o'clock there was a contest for precedence between the Cuban resolutions and the Dupont election case, which was finally settled by laying aside the Dupont case while Senator Sherman addressed the senate in support of the Cuban resolutions.

Mr. Sherman discussed at length the character of the resolutions and the conditions existing in Cuba. It was not best to send joint resolutions to the president, as it would compel his action in ten days, and this was not judicious. He had confidence in the president. There were political differences between them but, he added, "no one doubts his courage; no one doubts his fidelity to the flag of our country." Mr. Sherman referred to General Weyler as a butcher and said the conditions in Cuba were "Spanish. "If war does not exist in Cuba," he asked, "where outside of hell does it exist." Speaking of the demand for facts, he said that Senator Lodge had obtained from Secretary Olney ample facts to justify the resolutions, but for obvious reasons they could not be made public.

The senate has passed the bill authorizing the Hammond and Blue Island Railroad company to construct a bridge across the Calumet river, in Illinois.

The house committee on territories today decided to recommend the passage of a bill creating a territorial form of government for Alaska, and giving the territory a delegate in congress.

Today's statement of the condition of the treasury shows: Available cash balance, $253,641,621; gold reserve, $125,716,291.

DECISION AFFIRMED.

The Press Publishing Company Stuck In the Sum of $5,000.

NEW YORK, March 12.—Judge Lacombe, in the United States circuit court of appeals, has affirmed the judgment of the circuit court for the eastern district of New York, awarding Miss Harriet Monroe, of Chicago $5,000 damages against the Press Publishing company, of this city. The suit was the outgrowth of the premature publication in the New York World, of the ode which Miss Monroe had written for the dedication ceremonies of the World's Columbian exposition in 1893. It was alleged by the complainant in this action that certain errors which appeared in the unauthorized publication of her ode were damaging to her reputation as a writer. Miss Monroe obtained a verdict in the circuit court in October, 1894.

Dr Ensign was also called upon to attend the ten year old daughter of Mrs. Frederick Eschbaum of No 51 Taylor street. The little girl fell on the sidewalk on the way home from school and broke both bones in the

AFFAIRS IN CUBA

As Depicted by Colonel Peraza, the Insurgent.

Spanish Soldiers Take No Interest in the Government's Cause and Many Desert and Go to the Cubans.

NEW YORK, March 12.—Col. Frederick O. Peraza, chief of staff of General Maceo, of Cuba, is in this city on a secret mission. He will return to Cuba in a few days. In an interview last night he said: "When I left Cuba, General Gomez and General Maceo were very well satisfied at the conditions existing, and hoped to be able to do something more decisive in the near future. The raid through the central provinces has brought good results. The Cubans gained arms, ammunition and men. Many Spanish volunteers have taken the field with them in the eastern part of the island over 1,000 Spanish regulars have deserted to the Cubans. Since I left the army there has been a reorganization and some changes. Maceo and Gomez were about to unite their forces again. They now have an army of about 25,000 men in the central provinces. The Cubans have throughout the island about 60,000 armed men, and about 50,000 partially armed. Of the armed men about one-third are cavalrymen, who have plenty of good horses. The Spanish mounted infantrymen are no match for them. Many of the Spaniards are not able to ride and when they charge they cling with both hands to the pommels of their saddles and do not control their horses. Since General Weyler took control the Spaniards have done nothing. They have a great many dying columns in the field but they are always with the rear guard, following along, and never by any chance coming in contact with the vanguard. That is the reason that General Maceo was able to pass from the province of Pinar del Rio to the province of Havana without firing a shot. The Spanish army was marched in the region. I was in the ten years war, and saw the Spaniards fight like demons. Now there is a change. They seem to have no heart for their work. They fight weakly and do not seem to care how the battle may go. The Spaniards appear to be very much demoralized both on account of the movements of Cubans and the action of the American congress. The resolutions passed by the house and senate have given much joy to the Cuban leaders. I had no trouble in getting away from Cuba. In fact there were many facilities. I left the island at a point not far from Havana. The whole interior of the island and the coast with the exception of the few harbors held by the Spaniards are practically under the control of the insurgents. Colonel Peresa was wounded January 18 in the battle of Garro, where the Spaniards ambushed the troops of General Maceo and killed four men. Colonel Peresa was shot in the neck, and was in the hospital for several weeks. He left the island about a week ago.

SNOW STORMS.

The "Beautiful" Fell to a Depth of Twenty Inches.

NEW YORK, March 12.—Snow fell all night in the interior of the state. Dispatches received today by the Associated Press report from eighteen to twenty inches of snow at Saratoga, Amsterdam, Monticello and other points, and considerable interruption to railway traffic in consequence. In this city the storm subsided before midnight, and today the weather is clear but cold.

PITTSBURG, March 12.—The worst snow storm that has been experienced in western Pennsylvania for years, swept over Pittsburg yesterday and last night. More snow fell during the twenty-four hours ending this morning than all the days of the winter. The temperature dropped twenty degrees, and another fall of ten to fifteen degrees is expected today. Despite the heavy snow, trains on all lines were generally on time. On the Baltimore and Ohio road, a freight wreck near here last night, tied up the line for nearly eight hours. No one was injured.

TWO FIRES.

Tobacco Warehouse in Pennsylvania—Oil Mill in Mississippi.

LANCASTER, Pa., March 12.—The tobacco warehouse occupied by C. Walt Kendig was entirely destroyed by fire this morning together with between 500 and 600 cases of tobacco. There is an insurance of $35,000 on the tobacco which will only cover the loss. The building was owned by Mrs. J. Grant Zook whose loss is about $4,000. The fire is supposed to have been of incendiary origin.

VICKSBURG, Miss., March 12.—The Clarkdale oil mill was burned yesterday morning with an immense quantity of seed. The loss will approximate $100,000 and is only partially insured.

GOES GUNNING.

The President Leaves Washington for a Day's Hunt.

WASHINGTON, March 12.—President Cleveland left the city last night at 10:40 on the lighthouse tender Maple for a day's shooting at Widewater, five miles below Quantico, on the Potomac river. He expects to return tonight at 10 o'clock.

LOYAL DEMOCRATS.

They Had a Large Meeting Last Night.

Prominent Speakers Delivered Addresses, Creating Harmony and Hard Work During the Campaign.

The hall of Loyal Hall democracy was filled to overflowing last night by the crowd that came to attend the open meeting. It it had been a theater the "standing room only" sign would have been displayed early in the evening.

It had been announced that addresses would be delivered by S. C. Lumbard, H. P. Scherer and W. H. Shambaugh. All these gentlemen were present.

Mr. Lumbard was the first one called upon to speak. He paid his attention to the Oakley administration. Mayor Oakley, he said, started out in his administration with a whoop and a howl for reform. He carried out this policy for a time—long enough to impress a certain element with the idea that he was doing great things. Then he relaxed his vigilance and has allowed things to run in the manner that suited himself best. He has shown favoritism in his appointments and also in the administration of justice to those who have been brought before him. A person who was charged with a trivial offense was made to feel the strength of the law, while in the case of another person who was charged with law-breaking the mayor stuck the affidavit in his pocket because the offender was one of the favored few. The Oakley administration has made it a part of its policy to assess special taxes on everything in sight. First it taxed bicycles and vehicles. Next it assessed a special tax upon the poles of the telegraph, telephone, electric light and street railway companies. Now it wants to place a special taxation upon the natural gas company. All this, in my opinion, is undemocratic. The laws provide for an equal taxation of all property at a fair valuation and I do not think special taxation is just. The democrats should recover control of the city administration and if we nominate a good ticket and all work for it we will win success. I shall support the nominees of our convention, no matter who they may be.

Mr. Lumbard's remarks were heartily applauded.

H. P. Scherer next addressed the crowd. He urged complete organization among all the democrats. We are confronted by conditions which we cannot overcome unless we organize in every ward. Mr. Scherer gave a detailed statement of the manner in which the democrats managed the affairs of the city during the three years previous to the Oakley administration. He told how they built streets, alleys, new engine houses, city hall and other improvements on a levy of $1.10. The Oakley administration, which has collected about $80,000 a year more than did the previous democratic administration, has nothing to show for the money. If democrats will organize and nominate a good ticket and then support that ticket they will again be placed in control of city affairs. It will be my pleasure to work for the ticket which is nominated whether I am chosen for mayor or not.

Prolonged applause greeted Mr. Scherer's address. He was followed by W. H. Shambaugh, who attacked the Oakley administration for its system of city government. He said money had been unnecessarily expended for salaries and cited the comptroller's office to prove it. He said the comptroller, himself, at a salary of $2,000 a year could do all the work of the office, but that he had one clerk all the time and during a portion of the year two clerks. Mr. Shambaugh arraigned the administration in a fearless and convincing manner and his address was frequently punctuated with applause by the crowd.

S. M. Foster was called upon and in his speech he produced figures to prove the assertion that every move that has been made by the Oakley administration has been for the purpose of strengthening it politically. He recounted what he termed willful attempts to mislead the democratic council and the people by juggling figures and making threats of vetoing the Gas levy ordinance. Mr. Foster urged the democrats to stand together and support the ticket which will be nominated at the convention, having as their motto, "The party first, the candidates afterward."

CHICAGO, March 12.—Governor Fifer was unanimously elected national committeeman from Illinois by the republican state central committee today in place of W. J. Campbell, deceased.

THE LAST ROUND

In the Fight for Republican National Delegates.

Will Be Fought in the Areas at the Auburn Conventions All Parties Preparing for the Scrap.

From present indications it appears that the republican row over the position to decide on the national convention has not yet been settled. The election in this county last Saturday, it will be remembered, resulted in the selection of a majority of delegates who are for R. T. McDonald. Yet the Sheldon and Law people claim they have enough delegates from this county to make a fair showing for their favorites at the Auburn convention. In addition to this they say that some of the other counties have chosen delegates who are favorable to them and to other candidates who are scattered through the district and that it is by no means certain as yet that McDonald will have a majority in the convention. Both the Sheldon and Law factions threaten to carry the war into Africa, or rather into the Auburn convention, and raise a row that will cause somebody a hair to stand on end.

Some of the conservative republicans of this city are counseling the warring elements to quit. They say they should recognize the fact that they were whipped and accept the defeat gracefully, but the other fellows say "nit."

It looks now as though the convention at Auburn on the 19th of this month, at which time the delegate is to be elected, will be a hot one, and that it will be a fight to a finish between the Fort Wayne delegations, who are each for their own man and "Against" anyone else.

FOR THE CRANKS.

News and Notes About the National Game.

Fort Wayne Invited to Join a New League—A False Rumor—Start Summer Signed.

Manager William Meyer has received a letter from H. F. Schmidt, manager of the Terre Haute base ball club, accepting the dates and terms for the exhibition games mentioned in The SENTINEL several days ago. Schmidt also states that a league is being formed with Evansville and Terre Haute, Ind., Springfield, Jacksonville, Decatur Danville and Bloomington, Ill., and he says he "wishes Fort Wayne was in it too." It will be a strong league and all are good ball towns, but Fort Wayne is firmly fixed in the Inter State league and will not change.

A silly rumor was heard on the streets a few days ago that the Inter-State league had collapsed. There is no truth in it. The success of the organization is assured. A meeting is to be held soon for the purpose of arranging the schedule of games.

Capt. George Tebeau, of the Fort Wayne team, writes from Denver that he has signed Earl Sumner, a red hot ball player from Braintree, Mass., at a salary of $100 a month. Sumner played with an eastern league team last year.

DIED AT RICHMOND.

Word Received of the Death of Mrs. Will Morris.

She Was Formerly Miss Lily Ward, of This City—The Funeral Takes Place Monday Morning.

It is with profound sorrow that THE SENTINEL announces the death of Mrs. William Morris, which occurred at her home in Richmond, Va., at 6 o'clock last evening.

Mrs. Morris was formerly Miss Lily Ward, daughter of Mrs. H. S. Ward, of this city. She was married to Mr. Morris a number of years ago when that gentleman was master mechanic of the Wabash railroad in this city. Later they resided at Grand Rapids, Mich., where Mr. Morris was officially connected with the Chicago and West Michigan railroad, and a few years ago they removed to Richmond, Va., Mr. Morris having been appointed superintendent of motive power on the Chesapeake and Ohio road, with headquarters in that city.

Mrs. Morris visited her parents during the holidays and was at that time in the best of health. Nothing was known of her illness and the first intimation of it came last night when Mr. and Mrs. Ward received a telegram conveying the startling intelligence that she had died.

When she returned home to Richmond from this city after her visit here she was accompanied by her sister, Miss Anna Ward, who was at her bedside at the time of her death.

Mrs. Morris was beloved in a wide circle in this city. She was of a bright, sunny disposition, and such a person as would endear herself to all her friends and acquaintances. The sad news of her demise will be received with a pang of sorrow by all who knew her when she was at home in this city, a winsome and beautiful lady.

The remains will be brought to the home of her parents in this city for interment. They will arrive tomorrow and will be accompanied by the bereaved husband, their four-year-old daughter, Miss Anna Ward and Mr. and Mrs. Stephens. The funeral will be held at the Episcopal church, at 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon.

BURNED OUR FLAG.

Students Further Insult Uncle Sam.

MADRID, March 12.—Further demonstrations of students against the United States as a result of the Cuban resolutions of congress, have occurred. At Corunna, 200 students belonging to the university joined in a parade yesterday, cheered for Spain and burned an American flag. The police, however, succeeded in preventing the rioters from approaching the United States consulate. At Alicante, the mayor and police, while dispersing a similar anti-American demonstration, were pelted with stones. A number of policemen sustained injuries.

DR. C. W. METCALF.

Death of the Secretary of the State Board of Health.

INDIANAPOLIS, March 12.—Dr. Charles N. Metcalf, for thirteen years secretary of the state board of health, died yesterday morning of pneumonia, at his home, No. 150 North Senate avenue. He was taken ill last Friday and it soon became evident that his condition was serious. Dr Metcalf has been in poor health for several years and was not prepared physically to withstand the disease which ended his life.

Dr Metcalf was born in Herkimer county, New York in 1836. He was a Mason, an Odd Fellow and an Elk. The funeral will be held tomorrow afternoon with the burial at Crown Hill. The members of the three societies to which he belonged will attend the services.

CONVENTION days are coming early this year.

ANOTHER war cloud has disappeared. The Venezuelan question has been amicably settled.

THE republicans of this district will hold their congressional convention one week from today, at Auburn.

THE Kentucky senatorial fight is proof convincing that United States senators ought to be elected by popular vote.

A CORRESPONDENT of the Northwestern Christian Advocate (Methodist) suggests that Methodist bishops wear robes on public occasions. The masses of the Methodists would say "no" to that.

THE question in Kentucky now is, "Who will have a majority in the legislature after the two old parties are through firing each other?"

CITY politics claim a good deal of attention just now. With the democrats the interesting question is: "Who will be the candidate for mayor?"

INDIANAPOLIS papers are discussing Sunday base ball. The News of that city, which has the largest circulation of any paper in the state and which stands for the best elements in society, vigorously opposes the violation of the law.

THE Loyal Hall Democracy has grown so rapidly in membership that they will be compelled to move into more commodious quarters. It is a club founded on excellent principles and will be one of the permanent political organizations of the city.

THE great majority of the citizens of Indiana hope that the supreme court of the state will sustain the constitutionality of the Nicholson law in the test cases which they are now hearing. The law is a good one and has done much to eliminate many of the evils resulting from the liquor traffic.

THE suit begun in Marion county to set aside the legislative apportionment act of 1895 reached the supreme court yesterday afternoon. The court will be asked to take up the case at once. There will probably be a motion to advance filed immediately. The attorneys for the republican state committee hope to get a decision in a month or six weeks.

A NEW republican paper is to be issued in Pittsburg. It will make its first appearance next Monday evening, and is to be called "The Pittsburg Daily News." Its projectors say that it is to be printed "in reponse to an admitted demand in Pittsburg for an afternoon paper that is not befouled by sensationalism, but rather one that will be clean, reliable and entertaining."

WITHIN the past four days, says a telegram from St. Louis, friends and supporters of Major McKinley, of Ohio, have secured accommodations for 1 500 people there during the republican national convention. The Pennsylvania delegation gave up its contract with the Lindell hotel to care for 300 people and the space was eagerly gobbled up by the Ohioans. Then Iowa gave up accommodations for 300 people and the McKinleyites also secured them. The Marylanders were the third to throw up the sponge, and before the ink on the telegram was cold the Buckeyes had the accommodations. Aside from this, the McKinley forces have made contracts with the Southern hotel for all the space they would give them, and the same thing has been done by them at the Lindell, St. James, Laclede, Planter's, and at every hostlery where any accommodations whatever could be secured.

SOME one has summed up the problems that youth has to face in the expressive remark that every person starting out in life has two great sets of institutions to choose between—the institutions of good and the institutions of evil. If this be true it is also true that the category of good institutions contain none that deserve to rank higher than the Christian Endeavor societies, the Epworth leagues and the Baptist unions. Those who are not acquainted with the workings of these societies have but little idea of their true nature or the beneficent office they fill in society. Their greatest value consists in the associations that they throw around the young. "A human being follows his associates" is an old aphorism, and in the case of the young people's societies this is illustrated by the fact that perhaps nine-tenths of the persons who enter their portals are led by association into the broader realm of the church, becoming useful members of society and builders of character. Fort Wayne has her full quota of these church societies and there is no city in the country where the members are more active or more devoted to their cause. The work which they do is done in a quiet way. It is in deeds of mercy and help, in the spiritual elevation of souls and the building up of religion, and it is having its influence for good in our city.

The World's Final War.

There is the possibility of a tremendous war in Europe. It has been predicted for half a century by those who recognized the tension of the relation between the nations there, and what is looked for a long time generally comes to hand at last. It is possible that the United States would be involved in such a war if it came, though all Americans must hope we should not be.

At any rate, if it should come this much is tolerably certain—it would be the last great war in which the nations of the earth as represented by the civilization of today would be involved. It has been many a year since Great Britain had a very important war all on her own account. The last great fight in which the British flag was carried—carried, too, to victory—was the battle of Waterloo. Where the next great fight will be it is possible the year 1896 will develop.

The reason that there can never be more than one more great war as society is now organized is that the implements of fighting have reached such deadly effectiveness and precision that arbitration must perforce be resorted to unless the nations deem mutually to wipe one another off the face of the globe. Dynamite has never yet been used in a great war. It will be in the next one. The storming of a fort, which has heretofore constituted so picturesque and effective a part of warfare, can never be possible in the old way. Hereafter a part of the defenses of a fort will be torpedoes set round about underground. If a storming party approaches, a little child may press the button that will send them one and all to eternity. Or if, on the other hand, it is the force inside the fort that has the fortune to be blown up, the mines will be laid secretly underneath the fort, and a button pressed many miles away will send the fort and its inmates to destruction. Ships may be and will be blown up in the same way, no matter how thick their armor. The armor cannot be made that will withstand the power of dynamite.

In the small arm service of the modern fighting lieats the rapid firing rifle has attained such deadly proficiency, in connection with the smokeless powder now in use, that it is a hundred times as effective as the old rifle was. The glory and romance of battle belong to the past. Wholesale destruction of life by sea and land will be the inevitable result of a great war.

There are no more opportunities for picturesque daring and deeds of personal valor by which a hero makes his name immortal. Marching out to battle will simply mean standing up to be shot, with the chances two to one in favor of being shot to death. The personal valor of the future must be exhibited on the moral battlefield.

The inevitable result of settling their differences by fighting them out will be such wholesale destruction of life by sea and land that the nations will never dare again to invoke the red demon of war. Yes; there may be one more great war in the history of the present world cycle. There will never be more than one. It will be followed by universal disarmament.

Psycho-therapeutics.

That is what in the Illinois Medical college at Chicago they call the science and art of healing a patient by hypnotic suggestion. The college in question has been the first in our country to establish a regular department, with attendant professorship, in this branch of medical lore.

The method adopted is to put the patient into the hypnotic state. In this, while his ordinary consciousness is dormant, his subconsciousness is very much awake and is taking in everything. In the hypnotic condition the patient is talked to energetically. A vivid impression is made on his mind that when he "wakes," as it must be called for want of a better term, the cause of his trouble will have disappeared, and he will be ailing no more. This treatment, repeated sometimes daily, sometimes two or three times a week, will, it is claimed, often effect a cure. Such is the method taken by the French professors at Nancy and at Paris.

The doctors at the Illinois Medical college believe that if French physicians can cure by hypnotic suggestion, Americans can do the same, as they undoubtedly can.

The Chicago professors will hold clinics for the treatment of patients. They expect to be especially successful in all diseases of a nervous type, notably stammering and the habit of drunkenness. The drunkard will be hypnotized from time to time, and assured each time that he will thereafter loathe the very smell of alcohol. The professors are sure also that they can cure rheumatism.

It has been said over and again that if a suicide would put off his intention of self murder for 24 hours something would happen that would save him every time. A curious illustration of this has been furnished in Chicago. A German carpenter had been out of work since Christmas. He had a wife and three children and a father and mother dependent on him. Maddened by the prospect of starvation for those loved ones, he first chloroformed them till they were unconscious and shot them dead one after another. Then he shot himself. Two kindly neighbors called next morning at his rooms to tell him they had found work for him. They noticed the odor of chloroform on entering the place. They looked through the rooms and found the seven bodies stretched cold in death.

If Salisbury wants to have the good will and sympathy of a majority of the American people when presently he gets all Europe on his back, let him now agree to conciliate with the United States a treaty under which all questions between the two English speaking governments shall be submitted henceforth to peaceful arbitration. He need not say a word about Venezuela, but can just let that matter come under the treaty provisions in the same way with the Bering sea affairs, the Alaska boundary and other matters.

34 and 36 CALHOUN STREET.

Napoleon Bonaparte, one of the most forceful men in all history, a man continually wrapped in schemes and campaigns, in plots and counter-plots, striving intently and ambitiously for success and power—a man whose utter disregard for human life made his battles the bloodiest the world has ever seen—this man found bitterness in his triumphs because he had no heir to whom to bequeath his greatness. Josephine was divorced largely for this reason. Many women are incapable of bearing children. Many more of them are afflicted with disorders of the organs directly feminine so that bearing children would be dangerous to them, and unfair to the children. Every child deserves the heritage of health. The children cannot receive this from a sickly mother. There is no reason why they should have such a thing as "female weakness." It is unnecessary as it is distressing. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription cures all forms of disturbing feminine sickness. It purifies, strengthens and invigorates. It is prepared for just this one purpose and no other. It is the only medicine now before the public for women's peculiar ailments, adopted to her delicate organization by a regularly graduated physician, an experienced and skilled specialist in these maladies. It cannot do harm in any condition of the system. Its sales exceed the combined sales of all other medicines for women.

I have a new pamphlet treating on the cure and diseases of the female organs. Mailed free to any address on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y.

THE NICHOLSON LAW.

Its Constitutionality Discussed in the Supreme Court.

Judge Zollars, of This City, Makes an Argument Against the Law for the Liquor Men.

INDIANAPOLIS, March 11.—The supreme court yesterday heard oral argument as to the constitutionality of the Nicholson temperance law, passed by the last legislature. The importance of the case and the prominence of the attorneys employed brought to the court room one of the largest audiences that has ever assembled there.

The law, since it went into force a little less than a year ago, has been attacked in the circuit courts in many of the counties. Some twelve or fifteen cases have found their way to the supreme court. In order that the whole law might be passed upon by the court in a single decision it was agreed by the attorneys for the liquor men that cases raising all the questions involved in all the suits begun in the lower courts should be bunched or consolidated in the supreme court. As the result of this agreement, ten cases were consolidated.

The attorneys employed by those who wish to see the law broken down are Elliott & Elliott and Baker & Daniels, of this city; Allan Zollars, of Fort Wayne; Lamb & Beasley and ex-Judge Hammill, of Terre Haute, and the Stuart Bros., of Lafayette. For the state, Attorney General Ketcham, Charles W. Smith, Frederick E. Matson and Ritter & Baker, all of this city, appear.

Judge Hammill made the first argument against the law, Judge Elliott followed and then Judge Zollars spoke in opposition to the law.

Judge Zollars confined his argument largely to attacking the faulty title of the Nicholson law, and to show that the title did not fill constitutional requirements. He contended that section 9 of the act really conferred upon voters of a ward or township a power as effectual as prohibition, without requiring a vote, but merely signing of a remonstrance, and that an applicant can thus be defeated and prevented from obtaining a license without any reasons being given. He held that the very word remonstrance indicated that there must be reasons, and that was the only sort of remonstrance known to the state of Indiana. The remonstrance which takes away from the board the right to hear and the power to grant a license he held to be wrong. No man reading the title of the act would expect to find such a remonstrance in the body of the act and such a title is a fraud and a deceit. The section comprises the suspension of a general law and overthrows every one of those provisions of the law of 1875. If the ninth section is upheld, the majority in some wards and townships may defeat all license and this establishes prohibition. It gives the power to suspend the general law by means of such remonstrances. The law of the state is suspended by the filing of the remonstrance which takes from the board the power to act. The applicant is cut off from a hearing, and this is prohibition.

The assaults upon the law were made on the ground that the local option feature is unconstional; that the law is not complete in itself, but dependent upon the other liquor laws of the state; is not a constitutional amendment, and that the title of the law is defective in not complying with the constitutional provisions.

The argument was purely technical and consisted in citing decisions of the courts of other states on the questions involved.

The defense referred to the conditions that had brought the legislature to the enactment of the law; to the intent of the legislature as expressed in the act, and to the fact that it was a restrictive measure only, where a majority of the people wanted the traffic restricted, thus framed to meet the wishes of all classes and eminently liberal in its scope.

In closing the attorney general declared that even local prohibition is not in violation of the constitution.

A RELIC OF THE PAST.

NO LONGER NECESSARY.

A Medical Discovery Which Will Change the Treatment of All Such Diseases.

It has long been thought not only by some physicians but by the people in general that the common, painful and exceedingly annoying trouble, piles, was practically incurable by any other means than a surgical operation, and this belief has been the cause of years of needless suffering, because of the natural dread of surgical operations.

There are many salves, ointments and similar remedies on the market which afford some relief in cases of piles, but the Pyramid Pile Cure is the only preparation so far introduced that can be reliably depended upon to cure to stay cured, every form of itching, bleeding or protruding piles.

Mrs. M. C. Hundley of 601 Mississippi St., Indianapolis, has told by her physicians that nothing but a surgical operation costing between seven and eight hundred dollars could cure her as she had suffered for 15 years, and even in such a case as hers the Pyramid Pile Cure accomplished a complete cure. She says: "I know an operation would be death to me and tried the Pyramid with very little hope and it is not to be wondered at that I am so enthusiastic in its praise."

Major Dean of Columbus, Ohio, says he suffered for 40 years from piles and 30 years from rectal fistula and in that time two packages of the Pyramid cured him.

Mr. D. E. Reed of North Lenox, Mich., says I would not take $500 and be placed back where I was before I used the Pyramid Pile Cure. I suffered for years and it is now eighteen months since I used it and not the slightest trace of the trouble has returned.

The Pyramid Pile Cure is sold by nearly all druggists at 50 cents and $1 per package and as it contains no opium, cocaine or other poisonous drug can be used with perfect safety.

No one need suffer from piles in any form who will give this wonderful remedy a trial. Made by the Pyramid Co., Albion, Mich. Any druggist can get it for you.

WITH HEART AND SOUL.

Our Ministers Proclaim a Gospel of Health.

Show to Weak, Tired and Debilitated People

How Health and Strength Can be Easily Obtained.

There are no words so strong as these spoken by the true minister of the Gospel. One knows and feels, instinctively, that such words come from the heart, and are uttered only with the earnest purpose of doing good to humanity.

The boundless influence for good for those who are weak, nervous, debilitated and run down in health, of the strong and powerful words of these well known clergymen is an assurance of cure for sufferers. These great preachers thus proclaim a new Gospel of Health to the sick and discouraged, which means renewed health, hope, happiness. Their good tidings are doubly welcome at this season, for in the spring almost everybody is run down or ailing and needs just such information in regard to what to do.

Rev. F. H. Buffum, of Winchester, N. H., who is Grand Army Chaplain for the state of New Hampshire, says:

"The remedial effect of Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy on the weaknesses and nervous prostration of my wife, was so positive and speedy that we can heartily testify to its undoubted merits."

Rev. G. L. Wells, of Hardwick, Vt, writes:

"I have used Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy with most excellent results. It did great good for

REV. G. L. WELLS.

Rev. C. D. B. Meacham, pastor, Baptist Church, Townshend, Vt., states: "I am very glad to say in regard to Dr. Greene's great remedy that when my blood was badly impaired, Dr. Greene's medicine gave me wonderful relief. At the present time my health is as good as at any time in my life, and my confidence in Dr. Greene's remedy is constantly increasing."

Rev. Henry Langford, of Weston, W. Va., says: "I became so nervous I was unable to hold my head steady in the pulpit, nor could I hold or handle my books and papers without great trembling and weakness of my hands and arms. I was so nervous that I could scarcely feed myself. In fact, my nervous system was wrecked.

"I took Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy, and am wonderfully improved in health and strength. Dr. Greene's Nervura did it. I can heartily and truthfully recommend it to the sick. Too much cannot be said in praise of this splendid medicine. I say this for the good of other sufferers from nervous and prostrating diseases who can be cured by this remedy."

Clergymen strongly recommend the people to use Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy because they know it cures, and because it is a physician's prescription, the discovery of the most successful specialist in curing nervous and chronic diseases, Dr. Greene, of 35 West 14th St., New York City, who can be consulted free, personally or by letter.

RECORDS BROKEN

In the Bicycle Tournament at San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 12.—Two world's records were broken at the indoor bicycle tournament last night. Egan and Jaegling on a tandem rode a half mile in 1:00 3 5, and Metcalf, paced by the same team, rode the distance in 1:01. The final of the ten mile club race was contested by Wells, of the Bay City Wheelmen; Squires, of the Acme club; Leavitt, of the San Francisco Road club, and Birdsall, of the California club. Each man took his turn at setting the pace, until the seventy-sixth lap, when Wells resumed the lead and commenced his famous long sprint, with Squires working like a demon to take the pole from him but his efforts were unsuccessful, Wells pushing his wheel over the lap a comparatively easy winner. Time, 25:23 2 5. The final of the quarter mile race was won by Edwards, he defeating Tantau easily. Time, 0:35 4 5. Delmas won the mile handicap from the fifty yard mark, Cook second, eighty yards. Time, 2:27 2 5.

The solid through trains of the Nickel Plate road, equipped with all modern appliances for safety, speed and comfort, are a prominent feature of that popular line. Their fast eastern express leaving Chicago at 1:30 p. m. daily, runs through solid to New York city, arriving at that point at 6:30 p. m the next evening. Experience is the best teacher. After you experience a trip on this train, we are confident of your future patronage. s,w,th,s etc 31

A COLONY OF DUNKARDS.

Three Hundred Will Soon Start for New Mexico in Search.

LOGANSPORT, Ind., March 12—A. B. Peters, of Condo, N. D., is visiting Mexico, Flora Denver and other points in Cass and Miami counties, which are settled by the religious sect styled Dunkards, or Brethren. Mr. Peters is an exceptionally intelligent member of this queer sect, and is working in the interests of the church in organizing a colony of people to accompany him to Condo which place is settled entirely by Dunkards. A large number of people have already arranged to go, and are disposing of their property preparatory to starting on the 24th of March. On that date Mr. Peters expects to leave Chicago at the head of three hundred emigrants from the Dunkard settlements in this part of the state. Among the inducements offered are government lands, fine climate, excellent timber land, certainty of crops and a home where they can practice the religious beliefs of their church undisturbed by other denominations.

They indulge in many queer practices in their interpretation of the scriptures, and have an instinctive horror of worldly frivolities. Owing to the surroundings of the settlements in Indiana, however, it has proven a difficult matter to train their children according to the church doctrines, and a split in the church resulted, one branch being known as the Progressive Dunkards and the other as the Old Order. A large number have, therefore, embraced the opportunity to join the colony for the purpose of living in an atmosphere where their children will not be surrounded by worldly influences.

Cured of Gallstones.

May 27th, 1895.

The Dr. J. H. McLean Medicine Co.,
ST. LOUIS, MO.

GENTLEMEN: For upwards of ten years I suffered from what the doctors called neuralgia of the stomach, but they could do nothing for me. At times I was taken with a most excruciating pain and in my agony I prayed for death to relieve me. My husband sent to Lincoln for another doctor, who came, and after examination, pronounced my trouble to be gallstones. The only relief I received was when the doctors injected morphine, and that was only temporary. I was reading in your almanac where

Cured a case of gallstones. My husband thought I had better try it, so he bought a bottle. That bottle gave me so much relief I was encouraged to keep on with it. I used seven bottles, and am now, thanks to its great healing power, cured sound and well. I am unable to express my gratitude to you for the benefit I have received from your wonderful medicine. I have recommended it to many people since my recovery, and shall always do so when I have the opportunity. You may make use of this letter in any way you desire. Yours respectfully,

AFFAIRS OF THE RAIL.

The Promotors of the Belt Railway Strike an Obstacle.

The News of the Rail and Shop as Revealed by the Reporter's Note Book.

Recent surveys are not very encouraging to the promoters of the belt line railway in the east end. Three lines have been run and neither is thought to be practicable on account of the grade, which is estimated at seventy feet to the mile. However, the promoters have not given up the project and will no doubt hit upon a route which will be practicable and result in the construction of the road. Such a line would be of inestimable value to the railways centering here, as well as to the property interests in the east end.

MAY BUILD A TROLLEY LINE.

Indianapolis Journal: 'The project of building an electric trolley line from Terre Haute to Indianapolis is being investigated. The projectors wish to build it in the interest of the Vandalia and hope to interest the Pennsylvania company in its construction. It is well known that when the Terre Haute and Indianapolis was built a right of way 100 feet in width was secured, and the projectors of the electric road propose to utilize a portion of this right of way for such a line. The grading the entire distance would be very light, would not interfere with the steam road and could be constructed at a very light cost. The scheme of the projectors is for the electric line to do the local passenger business and admit of the passenger trains of the Vandalia running through with but two or three stops. The matter is being agitated, it is stated, seriously, but whether it will materialize is still in doubt.

Nickel Plate Conductor McCormick is able to work again, after an illness of ten days. Conductor Kitselman, of the same road, also reported for duty yesterday, after an absence of a few days on account of private business.

All of the roads in the Western Passenger association are considering the advisability of doing away with sidewalk passenger men. The matter will come up at the next meeting of the association and it is likely that all the men will be dropped.

Clarence Bowman, the expert painter in the Pittsburg shops, has just completed lettering the windows for the room on Calhoun street occupied by Harry Quicksell, the agent of the Union Star Line. The work is fine and speaks well of Mr. Bowman's ability as a painter.

George Burns, chief clerk of Samuel Felton, president of the Queen and Crescent, will, on March 20, become coal agent of the Wabash. When Mr. Ramsey was general manager of the Big Four, Mr. Burns was with him, and now, as general manager of the Wabash, gives him this position.

Detectives are working on the recent attempts made to wreck Baltimore and Ohio trains, near Woodville, Porter county, by placing obstructions on the track. Heavy timbers were laid across the rails, and only the vigilance of train crews averted a number of accidents that would probably have sacrificed life and property.

As a result of a visit of First Vice President McCrea, Vice President Joseph Wood, General Manager Loree and John F. Miller, general superintendent of the Pennsylvania Southwestern lines, at Indianapolis, the Pennsylvania company will expend a considerable sum in that city the coming summer in improvements. The freight depot will be enlarged and possibly the shop facilities will be increased.

The special train which carried the county commissioners of the counties through which the Nickel Plate road passes to Chicago last Tuesday passed through this city at 9 o'clock this morning on the return trip. The object of the tour is supposed to be for the purpose of giving the commissioners a correct idea of the value of the road and rolling stock in order that a just and equitable tax assessment may be levied.

Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. CORBETT SIGNS THE ARTICLES

Leaves the Date in June Open to Suit Fitzsimmons' Pleasure.

PITTSBURG, March 12—The original articles of agreement for a fight between James J. Corbett and Robert Fitzsimmons, forwarded by the National Sporting club, of London, were received here last evening for Corbett's signature. Corbett read the agreement carefully and attached his signature without hesitancy. He agrees to every condition stipulated and fills in the blank regarding division of the purse with the words "winner to take all." He leaves the date in June, 1896, open for the club and Fitzsimmons to settle upon. To be original Corbett has added the following clauses:

"Marquis of Queensberry rules to govern the contest; each principal to be allowed the privilege of having gloves made to fit his hands; each principal to be notified two weeks before said contest of the exact number of rounds they are to participate in."

Principals request that the Associated Press of America be allowed to have their wires in said club for reporting said contest to America.

NEW YORK, March 12—Ex-Commander Booth has not yet answered the cablegram he received from his father, asking him to go to England and see the general. In a few days I will make a statement, in which I will make known the name of the new organization which I have started." A prominent Salvationist said last night the refusal of Mr. Booth to go to England by invitation of his father might cause the general to come to this country in a very short time.

DIDN'T LOOK FOR IT.

Words From a Stranger Smoothed the Way.

An elderly gentleman of fine presence sat in the business office of one of the largest grocery stores in an eastern city engaged in social converse with one of the proprietors. They were old friends and tried, and were renewing the old friendship. A salesman came into the office and presented his business to the grocer, handing him a card showing a table set with viands, while the words "Postum Cereal" and two red disks appeared underneath. In a few words the salesman stated that his firm was desirous of having the grocer handle "Postum" in a large way. The friend and visitor suddenly spoke up and said, "Will, if you never sold that you have missed a good thing. We use it at home, and I have drank it for four months past in place of coffee because coffee disagreed with me. People in my town use the food drink quite universally, and you can depend on my word that it is pure, nourishing and healthful. It is made wholly of grains, and while it looks and tastes like coffee it has none of the harmful effects of coffee."

One can easily imagine that the good words helped the salesman in his introduction, and impressed him with the value of a good name and reputation.

The above occurance happened exactly as given.

Dr. Jno. S. Irwin Writes.

Office of Superintendent of Public Schools.
Fort Wayne Ind., March 9 1896.
E. E. Fowler, M. D., Aveline Hotel.

My Dear Doctor:—It gives me great pleasure to say from its use in my own family, that I have a high estimate of the Banning System of Mechanical Support and cheerfully recommend its use in cases for which it is intended.

Very truly yours,
Jno. S. Irwin, M. D.

The system of support to which Dr. Irwin refers won the highest and only award at Chicago, and has been adopted by the United States government as "infinitely superior to others." Over ten thousand physicians pronounce it "the only reasonable method of treating for a radical cure, rupture, spinal disease and deformities." Dr. Banning is introducing the system in this state and will examine cases at the Aveline hotel for a brief period. The Banning method radically cures ninety-eight per cent of rupture without pain, operation or detention from business, and all cases of lateral curvature of the spine where there has been no osseous change.
